NEW 40-PAGE SUPPLEMENT IN THIS SATURDAY'S EXPRESS & STAR

Parents in hope of new inquest

THE parents of a cyclist who died following a blunder by doctors at Stafford Hospital could be granted permission to hold a new inquest into their son's death.

John Moore-Robinson died in April 2006 after medics failed to spot his ruptured spleen following a mountain bike accident on Cannock Chase.

The 20-year-old was sent home where he bled to death less than 24 hours later.

The Attorney General reviewed new evidence into the events surrounding the death. Now, Dominic Greive has granted the Frank and Janet Robinson Government permission to apply to the High Court for the right to hold a new inquest.

Negligent

The Francis Inquiry heard the telecommunications worker, had been treated by a junior doctor in his second year of training.

Reports concluded it was "avoidable" and that there was a "high probability that the level of care delivered was negligent".

Mr Robinson, aged 61, of Leicestershire, said: "The least John deserves is for an inquest which presents the full facts. Nobody has ever been held responsible."

Death probe is under way

AN inquiry has been launched by the Health & Safety Executive into the death of a diabetic who died after staff hospital failed to give her insulin in 2007.

Gillian Asbury's partner welcomed the investigation, but said it was "ridiculous" it had taken six years.

WAKE-UP CALL OVER HOSPITAL SERVICES

SENIOR councillors have warned that residents across Cannock Chase are unaware of how badly they will be hit if services at Stafford Hospital are lost.

Health leader Muriel Davis issued a wake-up call to the people of Cannock, Hednesford and Rugeley and urged them to join Saturday's protest march in Stafford town centre.

She warned that local people may no longer be able to have hip and knee operations, or any other rheumatology surgery at Cannock Hospital under the plans.

Cannock's rheumatology and orthopaedics department is a centre of excellence but operations may be carried out elsewhere if the amount of surgery taking place declines.

Mothers would also have to give birth outside the county unless they were prepared to travel to the University Hospital of North Staffordshire in Stoke-on-Trent to have their children, said Councillor Davis.

Detrimental

"I am worried that the people of Cannock feel remote from what is happening at Stafford Hospital and feel that it does not affect them," she said.

"I want them to know that it does. Losing these services would be detrimental to them."

"But from comments I've picked up at meetings and just speaking to people generally, it seems they do not realise that the two hospitals and their services are connected."

"There is an attitude of

by David Lumb

'it's not my problem' and that concerns me."

"I urge people of Cannock Chase to take part in the march. We need to support the campaign for Stafford Hospital to stay open."

Council leader George Adamson said: "I get the feeling that people in Cannock think it's not about them. We need to show the strength of public feeling by attending the demonstration."

It comes after Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust became the first such body in the country to be placed in special administration, beginning a crucial 145-day period.

Clinician Dr Hugo Mascie-Taylor and Alan Bloom of Ernst & Young have been appointed to shape future services. They will produce a report which will go out for consultation before being considered by Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt.

The board of Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust has been suspended. Senior managers, including outgoing chief executive Lyn Hill-Tout, will report to the administrators until they complete their review.

Up to 4,000 expected at protest

Organiser Karen Howell with fellow campaigners ready for the 'Support Stafford Hospital' march on Saturday

PREPARATIONS are now well under way for the 'Support Stafford Hospital' demonstration in the town centre this weekend, which people from Cannock are being asked to support.

Up to 40,000 people are set to pour onto the streets carrying placards and banners. Hundreds of blue ribbons have been tied on bollards and railings all over the town.

Protesters will be meeting at Market Square and walking up to Stafford Hospital from 2.15pm. The march will be led by bands, VIP guests and civic leaders.

The rally is due to start at the hospital at 3.30pm, with entertainment and various speeches.

Name tag wrong on body at mortuary

A BODY was taken to Stafford Hospital's mortuary with the wrong name tag, it has emerged.

Mother-of-two Leanne Birkin, of Heath Hayes, saw a poster while visiting her mother warning staff that the blunder must never be repeated.

It read: 'We recently had an incident where a patient was sent down to the mortuary with the wrong name band. This incident must never happen again.'

Display

Colin Ovington, director of nursing and midwifery, said: "We would like to apologise for any upset caused by the poster, which should not have been on display in an area sometimes used by relatives."

"The Trust recently recorded an incident in which a patient who had died was taken to the mortuary wearing an incorrect wrist ID tag."

"Since the incident, the Trust has introduced a new protocol that requires two members of staff to check the identification tags and documents of all patients sent down to the mortuary to ensure nothing like this happens again."

Leaders are up for fight

COUNCIL leaders are bidding to save hospital services after administrators took control.

Cannock Chase leader George Adamson said: "We will do all we can to keep Cannock Hospital open."

Stafford Borough's Mike Heenan said: "We don't want to lose acute services."

Coroner's concerns over 'failures'

A CORONER is writing to mental health chiefs in South Staffordshire over apparent systemic failures that may have saved the lives of two men.

Scrap metal merchant Tony Purchase, 55, died at his home in Vale Gardens, Penkridge, after running up credit card debts of more than £30,000.

Ed Purchase, 63, of Codsall, told an inquest in Cannock that his brother's home was "worse than Steptoe's" and that had health professionals visited they could have seen he needed help.

A second inquest into 56-year-old former fitness instructor Barry Langford, of Wood Road, Wombourne, who also hanged himself, heard his GP records would have shown case workers that his life was clearly at risk.

South Staffordshire coroner Andrew Haigh said he would be writing reports into the cases "to avoid more people dying in similar circumstances".

Mr Purchase, died last November. Cannock Coroner's Court heard how he repeatedly shunned help and told case workers from EWISS - Emotional Well Being in Stafford and Surrounds - that he was fine despite having suicidal thoughts.

Mr Langford died last July. He had become dependent on alcohol. But his former wife, Jennifer Fernandez, of Bentley, Walsall, said the severity of his condition would have been picked up if health workers had shared information.

The coroner returned verdicts of suicide in both cases. He is writing to the local Clinical Commissioning Group and South Staffordshire and Shropshire NHS Foundation Trust to explore ways of improving the system.

Nurse cashed cheques given by resident, 90

A CARE home nurse cashed cheques worth £2,000 from a 'vulnerable' 90-year-old patient, a disciplinary panel heard.

Julie Lewis, from the Heathers Nursing Home, Cannock, was given two cheques from a patient in her 90s after telling her of her financial problems.

Specialists showcase growth at exhibition

FORKLIFT truck specialists Briggs Equipment will be demonstrating its growing strength within the ports and shipping sector in Birmingham.

Briggs, the sole distributor of Yale forklift trucks in Great Britain, has its main base in Orbital Way and employs 1,400. It will be exhibiting for the second time at the Multimodal 2013 exhibition. It will be presenting its ship-to-shore-to-shop floor concept at the NEC from April 23 to 25.

It follows the recent expansion of its product range to include the innovative range of Hyster equipment.

Chief operating officer Chris Meinecke said: "The ports and shipping sector has been identified as a key area of growth for Briggs and has become a core part of our growth strategy."

"We recognise that the Multimodal exhibition is a key event within the industry and presents a great opportunity to build relationships with new and existing users of Hyster equipment."

Multimodal is in its sixth year and is the leading freight transport and logistics exhibition for the UK and Ireland.

Lewis cashed the cheques in November 2008 but insisted they were a gift from the woman, known as Resident A. But a Nursing and Midwifery Council panel found she had acted dishonestly after she failed to return the cash by May 2011.

Nabeel Osman, for the NMC, said: "The patient was in her 90s and vulnerable."

"The registrant said the money was given as a gift, which suggests her conduct was dishonest."

Lewis had poor financial affairs and has since received counselling and moved closer to her family for support, the NMC panel in central London was told.

She said: "I really regret putting the resident's family through this experience."

Accurate

Maureen Corbett, representing Lewis, said the period has been a very traumatic time for the nurse and her family.

She added: "Through the stress of all this all her accounts of what happened might not have been accurate but she has done her best answering what the NMC has asked her."

"She has been able to continue to practise as a nurse and has not taken money or asked for money from any residents or family members since."

Lewis admitted she cashed the two cheques totalling £2,000 and that she did not repay the resident but denied her actions were dishonest. The panel will decide on what action to take later this year.

Girl power as Olivia pitches in

Footballer Olivia Fergusson, who plays for England Under-17s and Aston Villa

COACHES are trying to encourage more girls to use an £800,000 artificial sports pitch in Cannock.

The pitch at Cardinal Griffin RC High School is used by thousands of people across the county - but only one girl, Olivia Fergusson, of Chase Terrace.

The 17-year-old is an England u-17 international and plays for Aston Villa Ladies. The former Great Wyrley Juniors player has been playing the game since the age of eight. A former Cardinal Griffin pupil, she also played for Hednesford Town Boys, Chase-town and Stoke City.

Coach Nenad Popovic said: "We've got some great facilities down here and it's a shame that at the moment it's almost exclusively boys that use it. We need some girls."

For details, contact Mr Popovic on 07806 602606.

A minimum of 623 participants will be needed for the high noon record bid.

Junction cashpot is backed

CANNOCK Chase Council's head of regeneration says a £2 million cash boost to improve a busy junction will relieve congestion and help traffic move more freely.

More than £2 million has been secured to improve the Churchbridge interchange, which has been branded an "utter mess of a junction" and sees commuters stuck in daily bottlenecks.

The cash boost has come from the national Pinch-point Fund by the Highways Agency. The road network at Churchbridge was remodelled for the opening of the M6 Toll Road in December 2003 but since then, queues of more than half a mile have built up at peak times.

Concerns

The area has also seen a number of crashes in the past few years, prompting safety concerns for pedestrians and cyclists.

Bob Phillips, the council's head of planning and regeneration, said: "Not only will the £2 million upgrade relieve traffic queues in this strategic location, it will also support future development schemes, relieve congestion and improve safety, promote easier pedestrian and public transport movement and help improve air quality along the adjacent A5 area."

History for youngsters

HISTORY is being brought to life for toddlers at a Chas attraction, through storytelling, rhyme time and music.

The Little Friends Group is being set up to gently introduce the district's past to youngsters at The Museum of Cannock Chase, in Valley Road, Hednesford.

Museum service manager Lee Bellingham said: "We're really excited about using our fantastic museum for children's activities."

Sessions run from 10am-11.30am each Friday and cost £2. For more information call 01543 877666.

Public meeting over 'outrageous' scheme

Gavin Williamson MP

AN MP is backing village campaigners fighting "outrageous" plans for a biomass plant.

South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson will lead a public meeting to rally a resistance and explain how best to oppose proposals to build the facility on Cocksparrow Lane, Huntington.

The meeting will be at the village community hall on Stafford Road tomorrow (Friday) at 7pm. Mr Williamson said: "We already have three of these facilities within a very short vicinity. We don't want to become the disposal ground of the West Midlands."

"Such facilities can have a huge impact on nearby residents, who would not only have to suffer the bad odour that is emitted as part of the anaerobic digestion process, but would also have to deal with an increased number of manure trucks and a huge, ugly building that would blight the local landscape."

"This proposal is outrageous and I encourage the people of Huntington and the surrounding area to voice their protests over this proposed development."

Planning bosses approved proposals to build the plant in 2010, with the condition they were followed through within three years.

HE Humphries Ltd has renewed its application in a bid for more time while it holds talks with third parties.

Nearly 200 people have signed a petition opposing the plans and they have the support of local businesses and the nearby Littleton Green Community School.

Staffordshire County Council has pushed back its consultation deadline to April 27, with the proposals due before a planning meeting in June.

Councillor Jeff Ashley, who represents Hather-ton and Huntington ward, has written to the county council's planning department suggesting an alternative site for the development. He has proposed the old mineral railway track from the former Littleton Pit to Penkridge.

Huntington parish council is producing a traffic report as it believes the scheme would increase congestion and the risk of accidents.

Why now? asks family as death under investigation

THE partner of a diabetic who died at Stafford Hospital in 2007 after staff failed to give her insulin said it was 'ridiculous' the Health and Safety Executive had only now launched a criminal investigation.

The HSE is conducting the inquiry into the death of 66-year-old Gillian Astbury, of Mavis Road, Hednesford. Her partner Ron Street said: "I'm glad there will be an investigation. But it's ridiculous it's taken six years."

Probe - Gillian Astbury

A probe by the HSE had been suspended, pending Robert Francis QC's report into the scandal of poor care at Stafford between 2005 and 2009.

Mrs Astbury was admitted after a minor fall in April 2007 was being treated for fractures to her arm and pelvis.

A 2010 inquest at Stafford Coroners' Court found the failure to administer insulin amounted to a gross failure to provide basic care.

It heard Mrs Astbury's blood sugar levels were not properly monitored and insulin was not administered on the day before her death, despite being prescribed by doctors.

Contributed

A jury returned a narrative verdict, saying a failure by staff to record glucose levels, communicate effectively and read clinical notes contributed to her death.

A HSE spokesman said: "Following legal advice, HSE deferred a decision to pursue the investigation into Gillian Astbury's death until the conclusion of the public inquiry."

"We can now confirm our inspectors have formally started an investigation."

Julie Hendry, director of quality and patient experience at Mid Staffordshire NHS Foundation Trust, said: "I would like to offer sincere condolences to the family of Gillian Astbury."

Chief instructor Gregory Gavin demonstrates on martial arts student Paul Smith

Hands-on martial arts skills at gathering

MARTIAL arts instructors and students descended on Walsall for a weekend honing their skills and learning new techniques.

The three-day Martial Arts Extravaganza was held at the County Hotel in Birmingham Road, and saw more than 30 students and nine instructors share styles and information.

The event, which takes place every April and November, was organised by husband and wife Adam and Claire Illidge.

Mrs Illidge, 29, of Rugeley, said: "It's been great, a really big success. It's always a very popular event."

Classes

Mr Illidge, 38, specialises in Jiu Jitsu and runs Jissen Ryu Jiu Jitsu, holding classes in Cannock, Rugeley and Stafford. The couple run the Traditional and Modern Martial Arts Association, which organises the event.

Instructors and students, who ranged from eight-year-old to 60, travelled from as far afield as Inverness and Norwich.

On Saturday and Sunday, workshops and seminars were held for people to share ideas and to improve techniques. A meal and presentation was held.

Jiu Jitsu, wing chun, kapap and kempo karate were among the martial art styles on show.

NEWS in brief

Scaled back show will still go ahead

ORGANISERS of a major transport show that attracts thousands of people have had to scale back the event because of bad weather.

The Chasewater Transport Show will still go ahead on Sunday with around 500 vehicles expected to take part. Organisers made the decision after a site visit.

Melted snow and rain has caused the reservoir at Chasewater to overflow and left other parts of the ground saturated. The entertainments arena has been cancelled and a vintage HGV section called off.

Cars normally positioned near the water's edge will be displayed in the area vacated by the entertainments arena.

Chief organiser Helen Borton said: "We've had to cut part of the show. It's a shame but the main show will be unaffected."

Hitting heights to raise club funds

COMMITTEE members from a leading junior football club are to scale the heights in a fundraising challenge.

The 13-strong party, from Wyrley Juniors FC, are to climb Ben Nevis to raise money for its new pitches at Long Lane, Essington.

They will make the 780-mile round trip to Fort William on Saturday, May 4, walk 4,409 feet to the top of the mountain the next day and return home one day later. The walk itself will take nearly 10 hours and the club hopes to raise £5,000.

Anyone wishing to sponsor the walkers should contact club chairman Keith Hardy on 07836 202764.

Decision on gas supplies at flats

COUNCILLORS were set to decide on whether to introduce a £62,000 project to install gas supplies at dozens of authority-owned flats.

Cannock Chase Council's Cabinet was debating the issue yesterday (Wednesday).

If approved, the work will be carried out at 28 properties in Lomax Road, Hednesford.

THE BEST OF PETER RHODES

THE First World War kicked off in Bosnia. Argentina invaded the Falklands. North Korea is threatening to attack Guam. It is a worrying theme of history that wars tend to start in places you can't find on the map.

A SURVEY reveals that the worst thing you can say to a plump but non-pregnant woman is: "When's the baby due?" At least it's better than: "Twins, is it?"

GIRL Guides have voted overwhelmingly for the Sun to scrap its Page 3 nudes. I bet they are pushing at an open door. Rupert Murdoch hinted only a few weeks ago that he was considering the future of the tabloid's daily diet of flesh. If mighty Murdoch bows to the will of the Girl Guides it will win him a little credit in these dodgy, post-Leveson times.

TALKING of which, hasn't it all gone very quiet on the proposed Royal Charter to regulate the Press? We seem to have reached the stage where most politicians support it but most of Fleet Street seems unwilling to sign up to it. Maybe if we are all very, very quiet, it'll go away.

I DID not much care for Maggie Thatcher or some of the changes she wrought. But I find it odd that so many people who were barely out of their prams when she was in power have such violent opinions about her. If you can't remember the 1970s, you are entitled to your opinion but your rage is purely bogus.

SO FAREWELL, Paris Brown, the 17-year-old "youth police and crime commissioner" (no, I don't remember voting for them either). She has resigned after messages she posted on Twitter were denounced as racist and homophobic. Part of me feels sorry for her. We all do stupid things as kids and it was a lot easier in a pre-Twitter age to be forgiven and to move on. These days, one daft, drunken remark can haunt you for ever.

THEY say daylight is the best disinfectant. Press exposure of compensation claims made by thousands of police officers reveals that something is rotten in the system and must be cleansed. We now know that about 2,000 officers a year are being awarded damages, often for slipping, tripping or falling on private property while responding to 999 calls. And in each of those 2,000 cases, we are seriously supposed to believe it was all somebody else's fault. Do you buy that? Me neither.

ANYWAY, Home Secretary Theresa May has ordered a review of police compensation and not before time. But she will have a hell of a job dismantling this well-established little arrangement which seems to benefit just about everyone except the person who dials 999. Officers are encouraged to claim by the Police Federation which, like all trade unions, likes to offer its members occasional sweeteners. No win/no fee lawyers obviously benefit from the business coming their way. The insurance industry is happy to settle these cases, rather than fight them in court, because it knows it can recover the money by hiking premiums. And the poor customer is stuck with his insurer because once he's claimed on his policy, no other company will touch him. It seems plain wicked that people who are the victims of crime should find themselves sued by officers coming to their aid. But just because something is wicked, that doesn't make it illegal. As any cop will tell you.

Deer numbers up on Chase, says census

DEER numbers are increasing across Cannock Chase despite the unusually cold weather, according to the latest census.

The Chase is thought to be home to between 800 and 1,000 fallow deer and between 80 and 100 red deer.

Although the animals are wild, Staffordshire County Council manages their population in partnership with the Forestry Commission.

The council's countryside rangers complete an annual deer census to try to track animal numbers, which can be affected by food supply and road casualties.

Noreen Moore, rural access manager at Staffordshire County Council, said: "It is not an exact science and will not provide a precise number of deer."

"However, it will give a very good indication of whether numbers are increasing, reducing or stable. So far, despite the unusually cold weather conditions and in line with the rest of the country, we have certainly seen an increase in the deer population.

Healthy

"The deer are a very welcome sight across the whole of the Chase, but it is important for numbers to remain stable if the herd is to stay healthy and viable."

The area covered by the census is divided into grids, with one ranger responsible for each section. As well as counting the number of deer on their patch, they note the animals' type, gender and approximate age.

They also record the direction in which the animals move to minimise double counting.

The census began at around 6am on Monday (April 15), before too many visitors arrived to walk dogs or ride mountain bikes or horses.

Villagers moan at number of HGVs

DOZENS of complaints have been made about HGV lorries driving through Cheslyn Hay to a new housing estate. South Staffordshire Council has confirmed it is looking into the complaints.

Cheslyn Hay parish council says the village is being swamped by large lorries driving to and from New Horse Road where 32 homes are being built.

Councillor Bob Denson, chairman of the village authority, said: "The problem is going to get worse if we don't do something about it. We have been getting five or six complaints a day from residents about the HGVs."

"The roads are so narrow in the village it doesn't make it easy for drivers when there is a great big lorry coming in the opposite direction. I have noticed more HGVs coming through."

Miller Homes is behind the new development called Hatherton Place.

South Staffordshire Council spokesman Jamie Angus said: "The parish council has been in touch. We are liaising with the developers about the HGVs. There is no suggestion they have breached any planning conditions."

Second World War bomb raid hero dies at age 91

by Marion Brennan

A SECOND World War veteran, who took part in 37 bombing raids over Germany, has died at his home in Cannock, aged 91. George Burt was a rear gunner in Bomber Command.

The men of Bomber Command, with an average age of 22, faced some of the most terrifying combat conditions of the 1939-45 conflict. Around 55,000 of them lost their lives.

Paying tribute to Mr Burt, friend and fellow serviceman Gordon Taylor, aged 75, of Hednesford, said: "He was a hero. All those lads who took part in bombing raids were heroes."

Mr Burt also became known for tackling opponents on the tennis court. The grandfather-of-three took up the sport as a child after a bout of pneumonia that nearly killed him and was still playing well into his 80s.

He joined the air force in 1941, undergoing his initial training at Selwyn and Clare Colleges at Cambridge University, before transferring to South Africa for flying training.

In September 1944 he became a commissioned flying officer and after the war spent some time decommissioning three RAF bases in Cumbria and moving the gear to Anglesey in North Wales. His final posting was in Egypt.

After leaving the RAF, he worked as a stock controller at engine manufacturers Dorman Diesels in Stafford until he retired.

Holiday

He served up aces on the tennis court for nearly 80 years, playing all over the world while in the RAF. He became involved in the game through Cannock Boys' Club in 1936.

Until three years ago, he still took his racquet on holiday for a game and played once a week at Chase Leisure Centre.

A widower since his wife Irene died in 1999, he said the sport kept him occupied and fit.

He was also a keen footballer, playing in the Cumbrian and Welsh leagues, and was a football referee during his time in Egypt. A sports fanatic, he was also an avid cricket player.

Daughter Sue Morgan, aged 63, of Hednesford Road, said her father died peacefully on Monday, April 8, at his home at Rowan Croft, in Price Street.

She said: "He was a character, very sociable and would talk to anyone. He was very modest about his time in Bomber Command and rarely talked about it."

His funeral is being held tomorrow (Friday) at the Wyrley Wesley Methodist Chapel, Walsall Road, at 1.30pm.

Anyone who cannot attend is welcome to join family and friends afterwards at the Ex-Servicemen's Club in Walsall Road, Cannock.

Hickinbottom will have his case committed to crown court on June 4.

Shoplifter sent to prison over theft of meat

A HEROIN addict who stole £70 of meat from a Great Wyrley supermarket to sell on for drugs after he did not get his methadone script on time has been jailed by magistrates.

Ricky Hamilton had gone into the Co-Op store in Wardles Lane, Great Wyrley, on Sunday, April 7, and was seen by staff taking the meat and trying to hide it under his jacket.

He left without paying and the store alarms were sounded.

Staff gave chase down the road and saw Hamilton throw the meat to the ground before jumping into a car and getting away.

But Cannock magistrates heard how staff managed to take down the car's registration number, which was traced to Hamilton's mother's address. He was later arrested by police.

Mr John Peel, prosecuting, told the court some of the meat was able to be re-sold. However the shop was unable to sell £20.24 worth.

The 29-year-old of Providence Lane, Walsall, admitted the charge of theft, along with breach of a 12-month suspended sentence passed in January this year.

In mitigation, Mr Ian Henry said he had told Hamilton he was "foolish and idiotic" for his actions as it would mean a suspended sentence, issued for a similar offence, would be activated.

Evidence

"This is a straight-forward case of shoplifting. He knows that that it will probably mean a prison term," he said.

Mr Henry said despite very little evidence or CCTV his client had admitted he was there and taken the products, but believed it all could be sold again by the shop as he had "dumped" it. He added Hamilton had been too late to pick up his methadone script at the chemist and so had to go two days without it.

He stole the meat out of desperation to bankroll his drug habit, the court heard.

Chair of the magistrates Mr John Britton said the offence had crossed the custody threshold and activated the six week prison sentence.

He added a further four weeks for the most recent crime, to run consecutively, meaning Hamilton will serve a total of 10 weeks in jail.

Tattoo artist's ink-ling to raise cash

Tattoo artist Timo McGrath, from Burntwood-based Studio 42, demonstrates his art on Graham Hardeman

A TATTOO artist is to raise cash for charity after being inspired by a teenager with incurable cancer.

Timo McGrath, who runs Studio 42 in Chase Terrace, will be holding a charity day on Sunday to raise funds for the Teenage Cancer Trust.

It comes after he met Stephen Sutton, 18, of Burntwood, who has compiled a list of 46 things he wants to do after finding out he has an incurable cancer.

Getting a tattoo was included, alongside starring as an extra in a film, or music video, and crowd surfing in a rubber dinghy. Mr McGrath asked if he could help, inviting the teenager to his studio at unit 1A Morley Road.

Ribbons

Mr McGrath tattooed a troll under Stephen's arm, and on Sunday (April 21), he will be creating cancer awareness ribbon tattoos.

"We have come up with the idea of tattooing the ribbons for anyone who wants it, whether they have been touched by cancer themselves or a member of their family has," said Mr McGrath, aged 29, of Chase Terrace.

"We're just asking people to pay £20 - or more if they want to - and the money will go to the Teenage Cancer Trust."

The charity day will run from 8.30am until late, and a second will be held on May 21. Materials have been donated by Bodyshock Tattoo Supplies, based in Aldridge.

A NURSE from Hednesford has been jailed for six months by magistrates for the appalling neglect of her pet dog.

Christine Smith allowed her 12-year-old collie Lucy to suffer with a skin infection so severe that even vets who were forced to put the dog to sleep were shocked.

Smith, aged 50, of Maycroft Close, sobbed throughout the hearing at Cannock Magistrates Court. She was also banned from keeping pets for 10 years. Three cats currently owned by Smith will be taken off her.

The court was told how she had failed to take Lucy for treatment, telling RSPCA officers she had been afraid she would lose the dog which she had cared for since it was three weeks old and saw the pet as a "child".

Lucy had previously suffered from the condition in 2009 and had been treated by vets with antibiotics.

Squandered

On this occasion Smith, who worked as a psychiatric nurse and previously as a ward nurse, chose to treat it with shop-bought creams.

Smith squandered money on holidays while her dog endured "incredible suffering", the court heard.

The RSPCA said it hoped the sentence would send a "clear message" to irresponsible pet owners.

Chairman of the bench Mr Paul Ensor told Smith: "A dog has as much right to a duty of care as a child to an adult. The difference is, the dog doesn't have the ability to say what is wrong. Consequently the level of responsibility on the owner is higher."

The court heard it was Smith's 21-year-old son who made the decision to take Lucy to Vets4Pets in Cannock, where she was put down. Mr Ensor said the fact she had viewed Lucy as a child meant she should have been taken to the vet for proper care, and her nursing training should have meant she had the ability to diagnose and treat the condition. He said custody was the only option.

Mr Roger Price, prosecuting on behalf of the RSPCA, said the skin condition called deep pyoderma could have easily been cleared up with a course of antibiotics. The vet carrying out the post mortem described it as the worst skin condition he had ever seen in his career.

At a previous hearing, Smith was found guilty in her absence of a charge of causing unnecessary suffering to an animal, and another of being a person responsible for an animal and failing to ensure its welfare between June and August last year.

Miss Jo Clark, defending, said the case had been "sad and distressing" and Smith had not deliberately intended to cause such suffering.

IN MY VIEW

WITH
ANDREWS

I TRIED the BBC's new social class calculator three times, and came up with three different answers. Apparently, I can't be "traditional working class" because I don't go to "gigs". But should anybody over 40 admit to going to "gigs" anyway? We go to concerts, surely?

According to the research, the "established middle class" are gregarious individuals with "high cultural capital", whereas the "technical middle class" are a "small distinct group that aren't so social, but are into emerging culture such as gaming, the internet and rock music". Or teenagers, as we used to call them.

Where it falls down for me is that it seems to be less about what you do, and more about who you know.

Now many of us will be members of special interest groups which can lead to some very strange results. For example, if you are a member of the Rolls-Royce Enthusiasts Club, your circle of friends may well include a mixture of mechanics and millionaires.

And given that "journalist" is not among the 18 occupations identified in the questionnaire, it seems that half of my friends don't exist. But thirdly, what about all those casual acquaintances we might socialise with on a regular basis, without ever discussing work?

Looking down the list, I know a teacher, a nurse and a university lecturer. I think a chap I meet twice a year might be an electrician, but I could have that wrong. Does the bloke who owns an engineering works in Bilston count as a chief executive?

The survey seems to assume we all live our social lives around the dinner party circuit.

Maybe those who came up with the questions think that the "traditional working class" when not at gigs, spend their time hosting their special brand of dinner parties. You know, where people sit around the table quaffing cans of Special Brew while watching videos of Jeremy Kyle, and discussing the life of a shop assistant or a lorry driver.

But I can't help think that while the survey tells us much about the social background of those who work at the BBC, it says very little about the rest of us.

A SCIENTIST in Iran, that most progressive and forward-thinking of nations, has patented a time machine which he says enables him to see into the future.

Ali Razhegi claims his Aryayek Time Travelling Machine can see up to eight years ahead, and predict future events with 98 per cent accuracy.

Sadly for Mr Razhegi, I fear somebody has beaten him to it. For many years there has been a device around which can show any Iranians what their country will—with any luck—look like in 50 to 100 years' time.

It's called the plane out of Iran.

Kangaroo pies made by Flavours, Best of British

A selection of the medieval pie and pasty flavours

Henry VIII's wives have produced named after them

Earning a crust with novelty pies

A Chasetown couple have cooked up a novel way to make a living, baking pies with medieval flavours.
CLAIRE FRY reports

IT SEEMS people in the West Midlands have a very adventurous side to their dining habits as one Cannock businessman has found out.

Selling anything from squirrel and hedgehog pie to rabbit, wild boar and hare – to the exotic kangaroo and crocodile meats at markets around the area – it has proven a popular venture for Steve Howard.

Along with wife Debbie, they run their traditional home baked food business from their Chasetown home, cooking up recipe ideas from the past which they know customers will love.

The company, called 'Flavours, Best of British' started three years ago and it is already a sell-out at virtually every market they visit with their wares.

Recipes

Originally, the couple began making and selling 400 different types of jams and chutneys using original and unusual recipes. But although customers were buying the products, it would take them longer to consume them so business wasn't as profitable as they had hoped.

But then they hit upon the idea for baking old traditional pies from recipes spanning from as far back as the Roman and medieval times.

"We decided as our name was about being the best of British, that is what we would be," said Mr Howard.

"When we came up with the idea of what game we want to use, we then source original recipes we think people will enjoy eating. So we could be creating the pies from the chefs of Henry VIII, as an example. But sometimes we can't make it as exact as the flavours they used, such as lean meat which is very low in fat and our customers like them," he added.

For the more unusual hedgehog pies, sourcing the meat is very different, and they have only had two from roadkill in the past 10 months.

"We don't go around knocking them on the head, but the way we source them means we don't get that many.

But it is a very light, white, meat, crossed between rabbit and chicken," he said.

The pair get their pies, pasties and puddings made in a farmhouse kitchen in Chasetown to their exacting requirements.

"I have worked in markets and stalls for around 30 years or so, selling different items. I have found that the key is to offer customers the whole range and to do something well and be the best in that field.

"We wanted to have the Best of British and work hard to make sure we offer something different.

"Our menu changes with the seasons and we always take onboard what our customers say and they sometimes make requests or e-mail us asking for something particular.

"It is very unusual that we don't go to a market without a cool box of items ready for people to come and pick up. We know that the key is not to just carry on with the same things. People get bored. They want something different and that is what we do well at," he said.

Different

Mr Howard said recently they had also catered for a wedding where the groom had wanted the food to be slightly out-of-the-ordinary, and it all went down very well with the guests who weren't put off by the different fare on offer.

Mr Howard, 49, originally from Leicester, has been working as a market trader for most of his life.

Mrs Howard, aged 46, used to work for an airline on the check-in desk but quit when they started the business.

"Trade hasn't been better," said Mr Howard. "We are always getting e-mails from people either requesting orders, asking which market we are going to be at, or suggesting new recipe ideas."

The pair can be found in markets in Cannock, Wolverhampton, Stafford, Halesowen and Wednesbury.

RAILWAY passengers were at the centre of drama when their train broke down and needed to be pushed to safety by an inter-city express train. Passengers on the Birmingham – Wolverhampton service were stranded near Tipton, but the Coventry – Manchester service shunted them six miles into the city.

COUNCILLORS in Birmingham were on the ball when they met their opposite numbers who were visiting from Belfast. The two groups of councillors took part in a football match at Birmingham City's training ground.

A WOMAN claimed she had been driven out of her Wolverhampton council home by a poltergeist. Mrs June Zachariasz claimed that on one occasion a milk bottle flew through the air, smashing on the wall.

1993...

A SEVEN-YEAR-OLD Nether-ton boy rushed to save his mother as she lay semi-conscious from an electric shock. Wayne Chancellor was praised by firemen for swiftly alerting relatives after he found his mum suffering convulsions caused by a faulty electric lead.

WOLVERHAMPTON-based construction firm Tarmac were awarded an £8.4 million contract by developers Don and Roy Richardson to design and build the next phase of the Waterfront complex at Brierley Hill. The development was expected to create around 500 jobs.

FAMILIES were flocking to cinemas across the Midlands to see a film made in 1967. Walt Disney classic The Jungle Book was re-released to widespread acclaim and immediately shot to the top of the British film charts.

A GRAND Theatre audience in Wolverhampton had to be sent home after a performance of Andrew Lloyd Webber's Cats was interrupted by a power cut after just five minutes. Theatre bosses brought down the curtain when lighting and sound failed due to an electrical fault in a sub-station.

CROWDS of youngsters hoping to make a splash in a paddling pool were left high and dry when they discovered it had been drained. Council chiefs had decided to drain the pool in Tettenhall, Wolverhampton, for cleaning after complaints that it was being used as a toilet.

BOSSSES at the Black Country Living Museum launched a hunt to find a traditional baker. They warned visitors could end up going hungry at The Bakers Shop, one of the most popular attractions at the open-air museum on Tipton Road, Dudley.

Drivers using lay-by as dumping ground, claim

Councillor Mike Boyle, right and Terry Murphy at the spot where HGV drivers are dumping rubbish in Laney Green

FED-UP residents claim their sleep is being shattered by lorry drivers running their engines through the night to keep refrigerated loads fresh.

Householders say HGV drivers, who regularly park up overnight in the lay-by close to the M6 Junction 11, at Laney Green, are also using the area as a toilet and a litter dump. Among the rubbish strewn along the old Wolverhampton Road are bottles of urine and cigarette packets.

South Staffordshire district councillor Mike Boyle said: "It seems this once peaceful area is becoming an illegal, unlicensed lorry park."

"This appalling desecration of our countryside needs to be addressed."

Residents said lorries were increasingly using the lay-by as a stopover on long journeys. It was also being used as a dumping ground for tyres, household bin bags and builders' rubble.

Resident Terry Murphy said he and other householders had complained to the police and district council about the noise and mess.

South Stafs District Council spokesman Jamie Angus, said environmental health officers would be sent out.

Dismay as orchestra stopped in tracks

ON Sunday April 7 at approximately 10am the Cannock Salvation Army Orchestra prepared to play in the communal circle in Pheasant Way on the Newlands Park estate.

Unfortunately, no sooner had they started their first piece than they were confronted by one of the residents of the circle who demanded that they stop.

What I and other residents would like to make clear to the Salvation Army and the wider community is that this individual's objections should in no way be seen as a reflection of the other residents in the circle.

To the contrary, all the residents that I spoke to that morning were fully supportive of the Salvation Army playing and would welcome them back at any point in the future. Please come back and play for us again.

No real concerns over parking in village

I WRITE with regard to recent reports on parking in the Cheslyn Hay area.

I live on one of the streets in question regarding potential double yellow lines and I strongly believe there is no need for such an undertaking. As far as I can tell there has been no parking survey done in the areas concerned but for me there really is no major concern here.

Landywood Lane was also mentioned as a problem road, but I have hardly ever seen any cars parked on this road. There is a problem with the Co-Op and its car park, which I believe should be made one-way with entrance on Landywood Lane and exit via High Street. However, Landywood Lane itself is free of parked cars.

Another road in question is New Horse Road. I also believe there are no problems with regards to parking here. However with a new development taking place at the junction of New Horse Road and Station Street it may prove to become problematic. At the time of the original planning application it was stated there would be no problem with increased traffic. I strongly disagreed with this at the time and along with others, opposed this initial planning application.

The fact that these new complaints about parking are now being taken notice of by the council does seem strange as they were not listened to when the planning application for development on New Horse Road was pushed through.

A CONCERNED RESIDENT

Busy town and happy memories

I CANNOT speak enough on the memories of Hednesford. If only we could bring back the busy, happy town we knew. My memories are of all the streets being full of great shops. You could buy anything from a pin to a piece of furniture.

Christmas time was the best. Each year shops would place a leaflet in the windows with a picture of an owl on the front. For each sixpence you spent you were given a ticket for a raffle and the prizes were huge. On Christmas Eve everyone would crowd around for a councillor to draw the winners.

A huge Christmas tree stood in front of the Anglesey pub with lights and statues. It was a warm feeling and everyone was happy. We need Hednesford to come alive again.

We have the transport, all we need is big named shops, free parking and people to support our beautiful town.

Decisions still affect lives after 34 years

THE hardest situation in life is to lose a mother and grandmother, but how do you show respect in death for someone whose decisions in life have had such a lasting effect over the lives of many?

Take the privatisation of utilities, the systematic destruction of our industries, British Gas, MEB, BP British Steel, NCB, British Rail and British Leyland. Vast numbers of jobs were lost and the long-term reaction is that today's costs just to live are huge. Over the last year there have been more than 5,000 deaths related to freezing temperatures.

When the decisions of the few are still affecting lives 34 years on, my compassion lies with the Thatcher family but like millions of others I have no respect for Margaret Thatcher or her politics.

HELEN

Expect suggestion of minimum wage freeze

AT a time of soaring household bills, Centrica (owners of British Gas) paid £16.4m to their bosses in pay and bonuses. The 2012 figures include almost £5m for chief executive Sam Laidlaw, while British Gas boss Phil Bentley saw his remuneration leap to £3.1m from £2.1m from prior years.

It all sounds fair to the many hard-working families who have had their benefits cut while millionaires have an income tax reduction. However, we can all look forward to the Government's suggestion of cutting or freezing the minimum wage. That will make work pay while encouraging private-sector employers to take on more low paid staff and boost the economy.

Hypocrite colleagues will solemnly mourn

MRS THATCHER'S first achievement was in banning free school milk for poor children, which earned her the tag of "milk snatcher".

Among her other achievements was selling off our nationally-owned energy companies, leaving us at the mercy of foreign-owned petrol, gas, electricity and water companies.

She dismantled most of British industry in favour of foreign-owned car, coal, iron and steel industries, to name but a few. Yet she is portrayed as a great patriot by some.

She used the full power of the state to crush workers' long fought for rights. Even today unions remain in a legal strait-jacket. It is little wonder that those whose lives were wrecked as a result of her policies shed few tears upon her passing.

And it should be remembered that those who destroyed her, will be hypocritically the ones most solemnly mourning her, her own Tory colleagues.

Lack of bins lamented

CANNOCK Chase - what a lovely area to go walking. Loads of families enjoying various activities, also lots of people walking dogs. But oh dear, not a single dog bin located anywhere during an hour-long walk.

People had bagged the dog mess, then disgustingly had discarded the bags by the wayside. Shame on you all for desecrating such a lovely area.

Shop staff meet fundraising cyclist

Cyclist Sam Levey has raised more than £2,500 and is welcomed at the Children's Air Ambulance charity shop in Brewery Street, Rugeley by assistant managers Carrie Hunt and Ellen Tranter and manager Vikki Warriner-Yates

A CHARITY shop in Rugeley has been visited by a cyclist who has ridden around the country to raise money for their cause.

Sam Levey, aged 27, dropped in on the Children's Air Ambulance shop in Brewery Street. He cycled more than 2,500 miles for the charity between the various golden letterboxes that were painted to celebrate British gold medal success. So far the cyclist from Bolton has raised around £2,500. His final destination was Penzance.

Shop manager Vikki Warriner-Yates helped Sam on his journey with a meal and bed for the night. She said: "He has done a fantastic job for the charity, especially as the weather has not been on his side."

Inspector to rule on sheds

A ROW over potting sheds on an allotment site near Rugeley is in the hands of government planning inspectors.

Site owner, farmer Paul Boston, said he hoped common sense would prevail. "I'm hopeful of a good outcome - this whole business has been ridiculous from the start," he said.

Growers on site in Armitage with Handsacre were told 17 months ago that they needed planning permission for the 44 sheds that were erected. Enforcement action was threatened.

Lichfield District Council said the traditional wooden huts were banned because the site - known as the Plum Pudding allotments as it lies next to the pub of that name - is on green belt land. It is also next to the Trent and Mersey Canal conservation area.

However, the 105 plot-holders disagree, arguing that a neighbouring allotment site, owned by the power station, has sheds. They formed an association to fight the decision. Mr Boston, aged 66, has ignored the enforcement notice and decided to take his battle to a higher authority.

He said: "The paperwork is now with the planning inspectorate in Bristol. We've just got to hope that they will see sense. You can hardly find a person in the village that's against the sheds."

CCTV cameras and security lights have been installed after the allotments were vandalised at the start of the year.

Mitchel has The Voice to impress judge Danny

by Charlotte Lilley

A TEENAGE rocker from Burntwood wowed judges on talent show The Voice at the weekend.

Mitchel Emms, aged 19, sang Foo Fighters hit Best of You and impressed The Script singer Danny O'Donoghue, who turned round in the blind audition to put him through to the live rounds.

The former Chase Terrace Technology College pupil previously appeared on ITV's Stars In Their Eyes Kids when he was just 10-years-old as Kurt Cobain and belted out Nirvana's classic hit Smells Like Teen Spirit.

After performing more than 500 gigs up and down the country as a member of a rock band, Mitchel is now keen to get even further in the competition.

Genre

He said: "I watched the show last year and really enjoyed it. It's different from other talent contests and I think the format is great."

"I didn't expect anyone to turn around because of the genre of the song so when Danny did I was really pleased. I'm glad he chose me because I would have picked him too. I'm looking forward to working with him."

The Wolverhampton University student, of Hudson Drive, says he knew from a young age that he wanted to work within the music industry and it appears that it runs in the blood for his family, as his uncle Al Atkins set up rock band Judas Priest.

"My uncle founded the band which is

"My family are all behind me and are a great support."

"My dad is a big fan and he's really supportive of me. Lots of people have said they enjoyed my audition and my Twitter following has increased by around 2,500 people.

"I am going to continue to rehearse with my band MisterNothing over the next few weeks as I prepare for the next part of the show."

Highley successful day to remember top striker

Ex-Villa striker Gerry Hitchens

Andy Jordan, Tom Knowles, Simon Goodyear, son Marcus and Dean Crossman

MORE than 500 people turned out in a Shropshire village to remember one of its most famous sons – Cannock-born footballer Gerry Hitchens.

A team of players from Highley, near Bridgnorth, took on the Aston Villa All Stars on Gerry Hitchens Memorial Day, which marked 30 years since the former England striker's death.

The All Stars won the match 7-3 at the Severn Centre on Sunday, with Martin Carruthers grabbing a hat-trick for the visitors.

Hitchens' family were also in attendance and were left 'overwhelmed' when the lounge at the Highley Working men's Club was renamed in Gerry's honour.

Villa's Former Players' Association now plans to make the game an annual event and provide a trophy to mark the occasion.

Co-organiser Alan Watkins said: "There must have been 500 people there on the day, which was brilliant. It was well supported by his son, Marcus, and the rest of his family who were there on the day. "They were all overwhelmed when we unveiled the room in the working men's club in Gerry's honour, which is now called the Gerry Hitchens Lounge."

David Norton, of the Former Players' Association, said: "We were very proud to be involved. The aim now is to have a game every year so Gerry's memory lives on."

Among those who attended were Simon Goodyear, who wrote a biography on the player. The day also raised money for two children's hospices, Acorns and Hope House, with the final total expected to be announced next week.

Born in 1934 in Rawnsley, Hitchens worked in the mines in Highley and played for the local side, before joining Kidderminster Harriers, Cardiff City, Aston Villa, Inter Milan and representing England in the 1962 World Cup finals.

Scored

At Cardiff City, Hitchens scored 57 goals in 108 games, moving on to Villa and notching 96 goals in a four-year 160-game spell.

Hitchens, who scored five times for England, later played in Italy with Inter, Torino, Atalanta and Cagliari.

He finished his playing days at Worcester City and finally Merthyr Tydfil in Wales, retiring in 1971 at the age of 37. He died while playing in a charity match at the age of 48.

Captains Stuart Humphries and Mark Kinsella lead out the teams with Highley School pupil Taylor Parry and mascot Sarah Boulton

MEMORY LANE

Vicar Rev Paul Kelly and congregation member Penny McLennan

Rev J.H. Darby with members of the church choir circa 1922

The winning St Saviours League football team from the 1951-52 season

Exhibition marks 250 years of parish church

A 19TH CENTURY church in Hednesford has celebrated its 125th anniversary with a look back at its past.

St Saviour's Church in High Mount Street, was built in 1888 as a mission church to help with growing congregation at the parish's other church St Peter's.

When constructed, the church could seat 250 people and cost £567 to complete.

The first entry in its register is that of the Dedication by The Lord Bishop of Lichfield, Bishop William Dalrymple MacLagan, on April 4 of the same year.

Its first priest Rev Joseph Draper took up the position, but was replaced only two years later by a Rev Dickinson. During the church's history it has seen more than 25 different clergymen come and go.

At the turn of the century a

by Tom Mason

chancel was added and two years later the church organ was installed by the Rev J.B. Pimblett. A daily Celebration of the Holy Communion was inaugurated for the duration of the Second World War.

The church organist was replaced by Private Reed, and new pedals were fitted to the organ shortly afterwards.

In the 1950s the vestry and organ loft were added to the chancel under Rev David Thomas, giving more space to the body of the church.

The church had a habit of inheriting fixtures. The floor covering and pews were acquired from both the ex-RAF camp on Cannock Chase and defunct churches and the pulpit and lectern came from another church closure.

The old church hall was a relic of the army camp of WWI, and served the church well until its replacement by the present church hall. In recent years that altar and altar rail have been brought forward and the choir stalls removed.

The church was redecorated in the 1990s during the time of Rev Viv Aggett who also refurbished the organ before it was replaced by a "robot organ".

Active

To mark the milestone, the church held an exhibition of its history and a special service along with a lunch at the neighbouring school.

Penny McLennan is a member of the ministry group and was responsible for collating the exhibition.

She said: "It was once a very active church with lots of clubs including a football team and choir. Nowadays it's a lot quieter but there is still a dedicated congregation."

Sarah's Inca-redible feat of fundraising endurance

BUSINESS insurance manager Sarah Page spends most of her days behind a desk.

Now the 38-year-old from Heath Hayes is now preparing for a 25km trek in Peru to raise money for charity.

After three days acclimatising, she will spend nine days in September traversing the South American country's mountains in an attempt to raise £4,000 for the County Air Ambulance

Trust. Sarah, of Sweetbriar Way, said: "I have never been a sporting person."

"At school PE was my most hated subject and I'm not even the most co-ordinated person, but I wanted to do something that was truly different and that would have a positive impact on many lives."

Surgery

"Raising money doing something I had never done before for a charity that helps save people's lives is a great opportunity for me to make that difference."

To prepare, Sarah will regularly visit the gym - after receiving minor surgery on her toes. The money she raises will go towards the charity's HELP Appeal for hospital helipads and air ambulance consumables.

Her employer, Stafford-based QBE Insurance, has pledged to match her total.

To donate, visit 'Sarah's page' at www.justgiving.com.

New flag raises the Army hall standards

SPIRITS are high at Hednesford's Salvation Army building after a long-term member replaced its tattered flag.

Pat Ward, who lives in the town, donated the new standard to thank the organisation for its support over 30 years.

Territorial envoy Rob Westwood-Payne dedicated it at a Sunday morning service attended by around 30 members on April 7.

He said: "I reminded people what the flag represents and we prayed for it and thanked Pat."

"The reason it has been given is a testament to the love and support people showed Pat over the years."

"The old flag had bits hanging off it and all sorts, so it is fantastic. 'We are extremely grateful.'"

The blue, red and yellow flag now hangs outside the club on Anglesey Street.

Invitation to town meeting

RESIDENTS in Hednesford are invited to the annual town meeting next month.

It will be held at 7.30pm at Pye Green Community Centre on Tuesday, May 21.

The public will be able to ask questions and put forward their concerns.

Carpet firm is latest to open up at Gateway development

LONG-established flooring specialist Walsall Carpets has opened a branch at Chase Gateway, part of St Modwen's £50 million transformation of Hednesford town centre.

Established in 1974, the growing retailer is leasing a 1,250 sq ft unit on Rugeley Road, joining existing retailers Barnardo's, Whitehouse Brothers Meat Market, Boyd's Hair Design and Hednesford Bingo.

by Charlotte Lilley

St Modwen development surveyor Mark Watkins said: "Walsall Carpets is the latest name to join the line-up of traditional high street stores and independent retailers keen to take advantage of the prime position and growing footfall at our Hednesford regeneration scheme."

"Talks are under way with several other retailers and we expect to confirm names soon."

Business

Victoria Shopping Park is located just a short walk away and shops including Tesco, Pets Corner, Costa Coffee, Phones 4u and Lloyds Pharmacy have all opened for business in addition to a 640 space car park and new bus stops.

Cheetham & Mortimer and Ramsdens are the joint letting agents acting on behalf of St Modwen for the scheme.

Conor Mulloy, associate partner at Cheetham & Mortimer, said: "This commitment from Walsall Carpets shows that the 10-acre Chase Gateway development has quickly established itself as a thriving retail destination for the area."

"Combined with the other leading names that have recently joined the Victoria Shopping Park element of the regeneration, St Modwen is fast achieving its vision of providing Hednesford with a vibrant, quality shopping and leisure experience."

Construction began on the town centre scheme in April 2011 after St Modwen, the UK's leading regeneration specialist, was granted planning approval by Cannock Chase Council.

Boyd's Hair Design opened last month at Chase Gateway and more recently, Whitehouse Brothers Butchers launched creating 15 new jobs.

An Aldi supermarket is under construction and is set to open this summer.

Butcher brothers pleased to meat you

Steve and Andy Whitehouse celebrate the opening of their new meat market

A FAMILY-run butchers has opened its doors as part of Hednesford's multi-million pound redevelopment.

Creating 15 new jobs at the Chase Gateway complex, the Whitehouse Brothers Butchers, said business was already booming.

Owner Andy Whitehouse said: "Since the moment we opened our doors, we have been having lots of customers. We are sure it is only going to get better and busier, especially as other shops open up around us."

Andy, aged 44, and his brother Steven, 53, have been in business since 1985. They currently have three shops in Hednesford, Cannock and Burntwood, employing 40 staff.

"It is good to be in Hednesford again as I used to work here and I am getting all my old customers back."

St Modwen development surveyor Mark Watkins said: "We are pleased that established retailers like Whitehouse Brothers are taking advantage of the growing footfall and vibrant trading environment at our regeneration of Hednesford town centre."

Cheers as pub given a real ale accolade

A HEDNESFORD landlord is celebrating after being named among the UK's top pubs.

Chris Brindley who runs the Cross Keys Hotel on Hill Street said his team has worked hard over the years to achieve the accolade.

"We are very proud to have received this award. We are an old local pub so it is great to be recognised," said the former Hednesford Town player and manager.

"These are real tough times for pubs but we have a lot of regular customers who support us and enjoy our eight real ales and guest beers on offer."

Members of Camra (Campaign for Real Ale) were asked to pick the best licensed houses in the region and cast votes based on the standard of customer service, quality of the beer, value for money, atmosphere and decor.

Mother's thanks over help for girl's surgery

Sarah Cope, of The Beeches, Rugeley, with her daughter Millie, aged six, and some of her get well cards

A MOTHER has thanked Rugeley charities for offering to pay her daughter's travel expenses to and from hospital for a series of operations.

Sarah Cope's six-year-old daughter Millie was born with spina bifida, a spinal condition that makes it difficult for her to walk.

Over the next two months she will need weekly surgeries at Alder Hey Children's Hospital in Liverpool to straighten her legs. Mrs Cope, of The Beeches, Rugeley, put out an appeal to help with funding the 160-mile round trips – and was shocked when Rugeley & District Lions Club members turned up on her doorstep.

Lovely

Mrs Cope, aged 35, said: "It was just lovely they came to meet us and get to know Millie. We were over the moon that we could get someone to support us." The Rotary Club of Rugeley also answered the family's call. The charities have each donated £100 towards the travel costs.

Mrs Cope said: "I just want to say thank you for their support."

She added that Millie, who attends Hob Hill Primary School alongside her 10-year-old brother Lewis, was already making her own plans for once the operations were finished.

Mrs Cope said: "She'd love some pretty, sparkly shoes to be able to walk in."

Signal box rescued in heritage rail move

AN HISTORIC signal box dating back to the 1800s has been saved from the axe and will be relocated to a heritage railway instead.

Brereton signal box, just 50 metres from Rugeley Town station, had been planned for demolition this September in line with plans to update the line.

Instead it will be moved brick by brick to the Chasewater Railway where it will be preserved and eventually used in its current capacity to control signals on the heritage line.

Bryan Marks, a volunteer at the Chasewater Railway, said: "We're very pleased that Network Rail have offered us this chance to take on the signal box."

Static

"We've identified a location on site where we would like it to go. To begin with, we will be using the signal box as a static display at the Chasewater Heaths station. There are works ongoing there at the moment. Eventually we would like to install it on the line."

"At Chasewater Railway our aim is to recreate the area's history. What's best about this signal box is that we will be receiving it exactly as it is - there will have been no changes made to it at all."

Hednesford's signal box is also set for demolition under the plans, although Network Rail says it hopes that too will be preserved.

Trevor Wilson, project engineer at Network Rail, said: "Both signalboxes

On the move - The historic Brereton Sidings signal box in Rugeley are in use and, via manually controlled levers, they control a number of semaphore signals and local points on the Cannock line between Walsall and Rugeley Town.

"The line was originally opened in the 1870s so the boxes probably date from around then. The equipment which they control is being replaced with contemporary LED type signals as part of the overall West Midlands Resignalling Strategy. The control for these is also being transferred to the West Midlands Signalling Centre."

"We are very conscious of the heritage value of the two boxes and we have already agreed to donate the Brereton box to the Chasewater Railway. Discussions are also in progress in relation to the Hednesford box."

The plans follow a nationwide scheme unveiled by Network Rail last year in a bid to centralise systems in Saltley, Birmingham, using a visual display based control system. This will bring the service into the 21st century and reducing delays when breakdowns occur.

Up to 38 signal boxes are to close across the Black Country and Staffordshire. The Walsall, Bescot and Cannock track will be brought into line in August 2013 with the closure of Walsall, Bescot, Bloxwich, Hednesford and Brereton Sidings signal boxes.

Battle lines drawn in bid to claim the smallest park title

Paul Griffin and Kevin Wilson from KP Events with Rob Hancox of St Matthew's Club

A BURNTWOOD park's rival - vying for the title of the world's smallest - has been described as 'a glorified flower pot'.

Prince's Park holds the British record, but organisers of the world's shortest fun run being held there say it should be elevated to the top of the global list.

Prince's Park was created to commemorate the marriage of Albert Edward, Prince of Wales, and Princess Alexandra of Denmark in 1863. It features a bench and three trees named Faith, hope and Charity.

Kevin Wilson, from KP Events, wants it to secure international recognition and take the title from Mill Ends Park in Portland, Oregon, which is the current Guinness World Record holder.

"Mill Ends Park in no way can be classed as a park, it's a glorified flower pot," he said. "How can it be classed as a park? You can't even walk in it. Prince's Park should be named the world's smallest. It is already the smallest in the UK."

Mr Wilson came up with the idea of the world's shortest fun run at the Burntwood park after researching the world's smallest park on the internet. It will take competitors

Mill Ends Park, the world's smallest

55 paces and around 20 seconds to complete the race on May 6 - and 150 people have already applied to take part.

"It will be the first time ever that a fun run has taken place at the park," said the father-of-two from Whittington. "We just thought it would be something a bit fun and different."

Runners will set off in groups of five or 10 and there will be an official start and finish line. Money raised will go to We Love Lichfield, a group that provides small grants to projects based across the city.

Dentures with a difference - a plateless top denture with Ultra Suction

The Ultra Suction system is available for both top and lower dentures

The Ultra Suction system is available for both new prescriptions and relined dentures

Betty is free from pain after having implants

A WOMAN who had suffered years of pain with two jaw conditions has finally found relief after undergoing dental implant surgery.

Betty had worn dentures for many years but developed neuralgia and her trigeminal nerve had become inflamed.

"I had terrible jaw pain and suffered pins and needles in the side of my head and tongue. It's a terrible condition. I'd had an MRI scan and had seen a specialist, but was still without relief," she says.

Clinical dental technician Mr Burchell had made dentures for Betty seven years ago and she returned to his clinic to inquire about a new prescription because the lower denture had lost its stability.

"I had put up with the floating effect of my lower denture and needed to address the problem. My lower gum had receded so much my denture was pressing down on a nerve and causing me pain," she adds.

Steven explained the benefits of implant-retained dentures and told me it would allow my bite to be opened some more. Since having the implants on my lower denture, I have experienced no more pain."

Mr Burchell said all dentures have a shelf life and Betty's denture problem was due to shrinkage of her gums - a naturally occurring aging process.

"We hoped for an improved outcome on her condition, but never dreamed that the final clinical result could be so rewarding with Betty being free from pain," he adds.

Suction another solution

A CUTTING-EDGE development to help resolve the stability problems faced by thousands of denture wearers is being offered by the Denture Clinic.

Denturist Steven Burchell Dip CDT RCS(Eng), who heads the teams at his North Street practice in Dudley and other clinics in Wolverhampton and Bearwood, says the invention has the potential to resolve issues with the poor stabilisation of dentures.

Prosthetics are held in place by tiny valve-operated suction devices which are built into the prescription. A clever diaphragms principle, triggered by the bite pressure on patients' gums, creates a 'sucking' vacuum between the soft-tissue mouth lining and the prosthetic.

Mr Burchell, whose clinics attracts patients from as far as Spain, the Isle of Skye and the Isle of Anglesey, adds: "The den-ture revolution is evolving at a pace. In recent times we have seen what I can describe only as strident steps forward with implant-retained dentures coming into main-stream dentistry, clever technology which allows excellent fitting outcomes and now the Ultra Suction product.

"Implant dentistry is not suitable for everyone, neither is it all patients' first preference.

'Toolbox'

"The beauty of this technology is that it can offer for the right patient excellent denture retainer qualities without the complex clinical procedures required for implant work.

"We have always endeavoured to be on the very cusp of clinical development and this is another tool in our commitment to always try to deliver results which are greater than patient expectations."

Historically, lower dentures can present stability problems as the jaw bone erodes with age. With traditional dentures this can cause lower teeth to move and create painful friction problems on gums.

Mr Burchell adds: "The device can be mounted on upper or lower palates and because of its efficiency allows us to consider a reduction in the size of the acrylic 'plate' which can result in improved speech and taste.

"The Ultra Suction kit increases the options in our clinical 'toolbox' and can provide affordable solutions to many patients who would not wish to pursue the stability resolve with implants.

"I remain passionate about the transformations good prosthetics can achieve."

Typically, patients will be encouraged to contribute their views to treatment plans and generally be assigned more than three-and-a-half clinical hours in achieving the best possible outcome.

Making the transformation and providing a cost-effective solution for upper and lower denture stability, the Ultra Suction prosthetics use a clever diaphragm system to help provide wearers with greater dental security

Dogs may have been stolen to order, fear

A DOG owner whose beloved pets suddenly went missing believes they were stolen to order.

Two-year-old chocolate Labrador bitch Rosie and former Crufts showdog Freddie, a 10-year-old brown and white Cavalier King Charles Spaniel, vanished from Mark and Veronica Gilbert's home in Dunston, near Penkridge.

Mr Gilbert is certain rare breed Rosie was snatched as she can produce puppies worth hundreds of pounds.

The 43-year-old waste materials worker, who has two other dogs, Henry and Billie, said: "We have searched high and low across the whole area and had friends and neighbours making inquiries and looking locally.

Traceable

"We are convinced if they had escaped they would have been found nearby.

"I think it is almost certain that Rosie was stolen to order. She is micro-chipped so she is traceable if found.

"Chocolate labradors are rare and as a bitch she will be able to produce a litter of around eight puppies worth £500 each. I imagine they will try to breed her with another because that is potentially very lucrative.

"We are heartbroken by it," added Mr Gilbert.

"Despite his scruffy, old-age looks Freddie was a successful show dog as a youngster and gained his stud book number which qualified him for life for Crufts. I know it's not the same as a child going missing but our dogs are part of the family." The dogs' disappearance has been reported to Staffordshire Police but without evidence the pets were stolen Mr Gilbert says the case cannot be investigated.

Figures show that since 2010, 443 dogs have been reported stolen across the Staffordshire, West Midlands and West Mercia police force areas.

Rare breeds are being stolen from Midland homes and sold every year, with some being taken by thieves who then demand a ransom. The most common breed stolen is the Staffordshire bull terrier. Siberian huskies can be sold for up to £700 legitimately while Japanese akita can fetch up to £1,200.

Mr Gilbert added: "We have tried loads of local agencies such as the railway companies, Highways Agency and councils to see if they have found our dogs.

"I'd warn other dog owners to be wary of this, especially if their dogs are rare or unusual breeds."

Women given fines over discarded cigarette ends

TWO women who threw cigarette butts out of their car windows in a Cannock car park must pay out hundreds of pounds in fines.

Penny Tayle and Danielle Wilkins were ordered to pay a total of £545 each after they were caught littering by an enforcement officer for Cannock Chase District Council.

Magistrates heard how the officer, David Rimmer, had been watching out for litter louts in the McDonald's car park on Church street in October and November last year.

Mrs Bridget Fearn, prosecuting on behalf of the council, said former Staffordshire police inspector Mr Rimmer had watched from his car as both women smoked their cigarettes and then made no attempt to dispose of them correctly.

He noted down their registration numbers and obtained their details from the DVLA. Both were notified by post of the prosecutions but failed to respond.

Absence

Neither Tayle, of Bridgnorth Road, Truscott, Wolverhampton, nor Wilkins, of Forge Close, Churchbridge, were present at the hearing at Stafford Magistrates Court.

Chairman of the bench, Mr Paul Ensor, found both Tayle and Wilkins guilty of littering in their absence. They were each fined £200, ordered to pay court costs of £325 and a victim surcharge of £20.

Mike Walker, environmental protection manager for the council, said after the case: "Littering continues to be a significant cause of concern with over 180 complaints being received in the last year alone."

"Residents should be warned that even small items such as cigarette ends are litter and anyone caught dropping them can expect to receive a fixed penalty notice."

He added that since last April the council had issued 158 fixed penalty notices and seven people had been found guilty in court receiving fines ranging from £75 up to £200.

Woman cut free after cars collide on M6 Toll

THREE people were hurt in a smash on the M6 Toll. The air ambulance was sent to the crash between junctions T7 at Churchbridge and T6 at Brownhills at 3.50pm on Friday (April 12).

One woman was cut from her car and another woman and a man were treated at the scene. The motorway was shut for 40 minutes.

Date for statue unveiling

The 7ft bronze mining statue, set to be unveiled at Sankeys Corner

A STATUE to commemorate Burntwood's mining heritage is to be officially unveiled on June 8.

The 7ft bronze memorial has been created by sculptor Peter Walker, who hails from the town and will be sited at Sankeys Corner.

The artwork was around five years in the making and was made possible thanks to public donations and £10,000 of funding from local developers.

Ron Bradbury, of Sankeys Corner Arts Mining Project (Scamp), said: "After many years of fundraising, the dream of a statue to stand on Sankeys Corner is about to be fulfilled. This is also the week that the 60th anniversary of the Queen's Coronation falls in, so it will be a double celebration."

He added: "Although we still need funding, we cannot add any more names to the plaques, as they have gone to be cast. There may be a further opportunity for latecomers at a later date."

No time has yet been set for the official unveiling yet, which is open for anyone to attend. A book is being produced about the history behind Scamp and pit ponies will be on sale at £10 each, containing a list of names on the plinth. All profits will go to Scamp.

Anyone willing to help by providing food or entertainment, or with funding, should call 01543 677789.

See T'Pau's Carol in anniversary gig

T'PAU fans can have China in their hands as vocalist Carol Decker celebrates the 25th anniversary of the 80s band's debut release.

To mark the milestone, the Shropshire-based singer will be performing at a host of venues, including in Hednesford, and four lucky Chronicle readers can be there. The platinum-selling artist still appears under the T'Pau name, despite the group disbanding in the 1990s. She will be playing at Lucy's Bar, formerly The Birds, in Bradbury Lane on Saturday, April 27.

T'Pau simultaneously achieved number one album and single with debut releases Bridge of Spies and China in Your Hand respectively in 1988.

This is Carol's first tour in more than 10 years, and she will be performing 28 dates countrywide, including a performance at the Isle of Wight Festival.

Popular

Doors for the concert will open at 7pm. Tickets are £17.50 each and are available from the bar. The Chronicle also has two pairs of tickets to give away.

Mother-of-two Decker has also appeared on screens in BBC daytime drama Doctors, while film credits include Nine Dead Gay Guys with Stephen Berkoff and the BAFTA-nominated Running Time.

She has been a popular guest on countless shows including Never Mind The Buzzcocks and Celebrity Mastermind and has presented radio shows for London's LBC, BBC Radio Berkshire and Absolute 80s.

In 2012, 'China In Your Hand' re-entered the UK Top 40 after it was performed by a contestant on the X Factor.

HOW TO ENTER

To be in with a chance of winning a pair of tickets, simply answer this question:

What was the name of T'Pau's debut album?

Send your answer on a postcard with your name, address and a daytime contact number to: Carol Decker competition, Cannock & Rugeley Chronicle, 51-53 Queen Street, Wolverhampton, WV1 1ES. Closing date is Thursday, April 25. Usual rules apply and The Editor's decision is final.

Market joins scheme to attract new traders

PENKRIDGE Market is taking part in a national promotional campaign next month. The Love Your Local Market initiative aims to attract new traders.

Bosses will be leasing stalls to entrepreneurs during the fortnight – from May 15 to 29 – at a reduced rate of £10 per stall. It will allow them to try out their business ideas and attract more people to the town.

Market manager Matt Williams said: "The market attracts up to 5,000 people from around the region every market day, so it's a great place to start a new business."

Sweet treats bring in cash for hospice

SWEET treats were offered to shops and businesses across Rugeley to help raise money for charity.

Staff at MMS Marketing baked dozens of cupcakes, flapjacks and cookies then sold them around the town, raking in just over £200 for Katharine House Hospice in Stafford. Jenny Holden from MMS said: "It's a very important charity to us as it's on our doorstep."

"We decided to bake some cakes for the hospice and thought it would be a good way to make them some money. We brought in a variety of cupcakes, cookies, flapjacks and shortbread. We went around the town and knocked on the doors of about 20 businesses."

Sales of the cakes raised £104 and MMS has matched the funding to take the total brought in up to £208.

Twelve workers at MMS spent hours baking the treats the night before.

Historic building will become flats

AN HISTORIC building in Cheslyn Hay that has stood empty for years is to be converted into new flats under a six-figure scheme.

Glenthorne House in Cheslyn Hay will soon become 11 one-bedroom flats. Work is due to start in the summer and should be finished by the end of this year.

Stafford-based Housing Plus is behind the project. Development officer Neil Woodfield said the company had gone out to tender and spoken to three building firms, with a decision due in the next few weeks.

Glory

Mr Woodfield said: "We expect it to be a 17-week build programme at the back end of August. They will all be one bedroom apartments and it will cost around £600,000."

"We are very interested in bringing the building back to its former glory." Glenthorne House in High Street was built by the Hawkins family, who were a prominent family in the area in the 19th century.

Mr Woodfield said there were currently 35 people living in Cheslyn Hay that had more bedrooms than they needed. However only five people had expressed an interest in moving to Glenthorne House.

It means the flats will be available to people living in the wider South Staffordshire area.

Welcoming the scheme, Cheslyn Hay parish council chairman Bob Denson said: "Glenthorne House is on the list as being of local importance. It'll be good to bring it back into use."

Police warn of equipment thefts

TRACTORS, trailers, mowers and copper piping worth tens of thousands of pounds has been stolen during a spate of thefts across South Staffordshire. Thieves have struck at properties in Penkridge, Hednesford, Burntwood, police have said, as well as in Barton-under-Needwood.

Claire Smart at her Penkridge dog grooming business

A PET groomer in Penkridge is celebrating three years in business. Claire Lowe opened Claire's Smart Dogz on Pinfold Lane, in April 2010 and business has been booming ever since.

The 29-year-old has always had a passion for animals and spends her days preening and cleaning people's pets. She said: "I started out as a mobile groomer and was finally able to achieve my dream of owning my own salon three years ago. I didn't think the business would ever be this successful. My Saturdays are fully booked up until July."

Miss Lowe runs the salon alone but is looking to hire extra staff in the future.

Rockers perform at pub

MODERN indie rock band The Rock Dogs are performing at The Jolly Collier in Huntington Terrace Road, Cannock, from 9pm next Friday, April 26. The set list will include covers from the likes of Kings of Leon, Maroon 5, Robbie Williams, Rolling Stones and Snow Patrol.

Walkers in protest at high speed railway line

SCORES of campaigners opposed to the controversial multi-million pound HS2 plans will be taking part in a protest walk next weekend.

The walk, on Saturday, April 27, has been organised by the Staffordshire Against HS2 group and sets off at noon from Wolsley Bridge Garden Centre, near Rugeley.

It will finish at Great Haywood Memorial Hall where there will also be an anti-HS2 meeting.

Organiser and chairman of Staffordshire Against HS2, Rolfe Pearce, said: "We wanted to walk the actual route of the rail line but there is a canal in the way."

Update

"So we are doing this route and ending up at Great Haywood Memorial Hall where we will be holding an update meeting."

The route of the walk includes Wolsley Canal Bridge, Colwich Lock, Meadow Lane, Little Haywood Bridge and then Great Haywood.

Refreshments will be on sale to raise funds for the campaign group, while staff from Packington Moor Farm will be selling sausages.

Packington is one of the businesses set to be torn apart by HS2. John Barnes's family has run the farm for the past 100 years through three generations.

The first phase of the high speed rail line from London to Birmingham aims to be running by 2026 at a cost of £16.3 billion, with the second phase from Birmingham to Leeds and Manchester operational by 2033 costing £16.8 billion.

The preferred HS2 route, designed to cut journey times, will see trains run north from Birmingham near Lichfield before passing villages, including Little Haywood. It then heads east of Stafford before going north towards Stoke, passing close to Stone.

NEW COLLEGE FOR CANNOCK

State of the art campus opening soon!

There couldn't be a better moment to join the thousands of students enjoying life in Cannock at South Staffordshire College. Later this year the town will see the opening of the newly refurbished College main building, centrally located opposite the bus station. The new facilities will create an excellent environment for the whole community.

The updated campus will benefit from well-equipped high-tech rooms, bright new facilities and a wonderful glass-roofed atrium area which will pour light into the new building, creating an inspiring communal area, which will be at the heart of the College.

The College in Cannock has gone from strength to strength and its reputation for delivering the best results for learners has seen many people travel from far and wide to enjoy an excellent education. Bus routes from surrounding areas such as Stafford and Rugeley are excellent and cost from just £1 per journey.

Courses on offer include industry-related courses for people who enjoy a hands-on style of learning, A Levels for those who prefer the more academic route and Apprenticeships for those who want to learn whilst in employment. All these course options lead to better employment prospects and routes to University. Degree level qualifications are also on offer locally through a partnership with Staffordshire University.

This new facility will be a place where young people are learning the skills to help them secure a successful career, where adults will re-train or learn new skills to help them kickstart their career or achieve promotion, and where the community will learn new hobbies and interests – a place at the heart of the community.

OUT AND ABOUT

Relics of the Romans and an icon of rock

NEW blockbuster exhibitions are proving a huge draw at two of London's most famous museums, offering an insight into the lives of Roman communities frozen in time and a look at the creative genius of a rock legend.

At the British Museum, Life and Death Pompeii and Herculaneum brings together more than 250 fascinating relics, including many recent discoveries, from the Roman towns smothered by volcanic ash in AD 79 when Mount Vesuvius erupted.

Family

The display recreates a typical Roman home with many items that would be familiar today, from tweezers to a baby's cradle. With their liking for food and drink, petty squabbles and politics revealed by graffiti, love of family shown in portraits, this reveals the Romans as very similar to us. That is poignant when seeing the resin and plaster casts of Romans frozen at the moment of death, including a family, parents thrown back by explosive heat as a child attempts to escape. Life and Death Pompeii and Herculaneum continues until September 29.

At The Victoria and Albert Museum, David Bowie Is will delight fans of the chameleon rock star who recently returned to the limelight with his first album in ten years. Putting the Bowie phenomena into a cultural context, fans will relish the chance to see iconic costumes – including Ziggy Stardust outfits – and read original handwritten lyrics including scribbled out alternative lines. The display ends in a hall of giant video screens, like a cathedral dedicated to Bowie. It continues until August 11. Best to book ahead as ticket demand is massive.

A home from Holmes on Baker Street

THE PARK Plaza Sherlock Holmes is a stylish modern hotel in a period Baker Street building, which pays tribute to its illustrious fictional Victorian neighbour.

The homage to Holmes can be seen in works of art inspired by the Great Detective, from a deer-stalker clad bust behind the bar to contemporary art in Sherlock's Grill. The family-friendly restaurant doubles as location for traditional buffet breakfast and evening eatery of this boutique hotel.

With its charcoal grill and wood-fired oven, the AA rosette restaurant specialises in contemporary British cuisine made with fresh,

UK-sourced ingredients. This includes dishes such as Cornish crab, West Country beef steaks, apple and sultana crumble with cinnamon ice cream.

The hotel has 119 rooms, including impressive split-level loft suites suitable for a family of four. These have queen-sized bed, sofa bed, two toilets, two TVs, bath and walk-in shower.

The hotel has a central location on bustling Baker Street, a short walk from Madame Tussauds, Oxford Street, the Sherlock Holmes Museum and Baker St Underground Station. See the website www.parkplaza.com/sherlockholmes, call 0207 486 6161.

Youngsters jumping for joy at sponsored event

CHILDREN are bouncing for joy this week as they strive to raise money for charity.

The youngsters from Happy Tots Nursery in Bridgton are spending the week dancing in a number of ways, on trampolines, space hoppers and even their feet, in aid of the Happy Days charity, which provides holidays, days out and theatre trips for disadvantaged children with special needs.

The children even made Tiger masks to wear during their sponsored bouncing activities.

For more information on Happy Tots, based at Orbital Plaza, visit www.happy-tots.com or call 01543 509089.

Dangerous driver told by judge to expect jail

A DRIVER who knocked down and injured three men in Cannock has been warned by a judge that he could go to jail.

Daniel Sloan admitted driving a Ford Ka dangerously in Walsall Road, Cannock, last June.

He was due to stand trial at Stafford Crown Court on Monday, but changed his plea to guilty before the case got under way.

Sloan, aged 22, of Walsall Road, Great Wyrley, also admitted a charge of failing to report an accident.

Judge John Wait remanded Sloan on bail for reports, but warned him: "This is a serious offence and a custodial sentence will be considered. Disqualification is mandatory."

The judge banned Sloan from driving until he is sentenced, when the length of the ban will be fixed.

Mounted

Sloan was driving his Ford Ka on the A34 Walsall Road on June 2 last year when he crashed near the junction with St John's Road, injuring Phillip Churchill, Taylor Kingston and Graham Cavanagh.

One of the victims was left in a serious condition.

The car reportedly mounted the kerb and hit three men as they walked along Walsall Road, at around 1.50am.

One of the victims was pushed into the sidings and was treated at the scene for head, arm and chest injuries before being taken to Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Birmingham.

An 18-year-old suffered leg injuries and was taken to the same hospital and a man in his late 20s, who also suffered leg injuries, was taken to the University Hospital of North Staffordshire.

Difference

Store staff, including those at the Voyager Drive store, will be working to raise money for animal rescue centres.

Customers can also choose to take part in the 'Round up to a £1' initiative, with the cost of purchases being rounded up to a pound with the difference going to the appeal.

Cannock store manager Joanne Stephens said: "Our customers are animal lovers, just like us, and share our passion for pets - so I know they will donate what they can to the cause."

Pasha and Katya are hot stuff on the dancefloor

"MY God, it's cold," says Pasha Kovalev. And when a man who was born and bred in icy Siberia is feeling the chill, you know it must be brass monkeys out there.

The Strictly Come Dancing star is sheltering from the unseasonably bracing winds to speak about his new touring dance show which he's put together with another professional from the TV series, Katya Virshilas.

It's a monster tour which started last month, and runs through to the middle of June, taking in more than 60 venues. On May 11 it calls at the Cannock Prince of Wales Theatre.

Pasha has become a firm favourite with audiences on the BBC show since joining Strictly's cast in 2011.

Busy

In that first year, he took Waterloo Road star Chelsea Healey all the way to the final - his Shrek costume was one of the most talked about in the series - and he repeated the feat in the most recent series with Girls Aloud singer Kimberley Walsh. He recently danced with Dani Harmer on the Strictly live tour.

"It's been really, really busy. But the success of Strictly over the past few years has shown just how much British audiences appreciate this form of art, and I'm loving it," says Pasha. "It was straight from the end of the Strictly tour to training for this one."

by Carl Jones

"On this tour, it is really good to get the chance to see people up close who have watched us on TV, and get the chance to interact with them, and have a bit of fun."

So, what can audiences expect from this latest show? "Lots of beautiful Latin and ballroom dancing," says Pasha. "But not just that, we will also be inviting a local dance school onto the stage each night, giving the audience a chance to test their own Strictly skills, and having a question and answer session. It's always interesting to hear the sort of things that people want to know!"

Tickets cost £20. Call 01543 578762.

Extraordinary shows by Paralympics pair

THE Arena Theatre in Wolverhampton will host shows featuring two of the stars of the London 2012 Paralympic Opening Ceremony.

Tomorrow evening (Friday) Helen Parlor, who worked as the assistant choreographer for the ceremony, brings her company Parlor Dance to the Wulfruna Street venue. At the Paralympics Helen choreographed thousands of volunteers to create a full length stadium show.

Her company Parlor Dance will perform Close Distance, an acrobatic and thought-provoking show that explores our relationships with our neighbours.

Then on Thursday, May 23, double amputee dancer David Toole, who starred in the ceremony, will perform at the Arena Theatre in a dance duet called Extraordinary.

Hands

Toole provided one of the highlights of the opening ceremony, dancing on his hands and soaring above the stadium to perform an aerial dance in a wire harness.

In the duet Extraordinary David Toole and his partner go on a journey of self-discovery in a funny, moving and poignant production, which explores challenges and misconceptions surrounding being a disabled dancer.

Close Distance takes place on at 8pm and Extraordinary takes place at 7.30pm. Tickets for both shows cost £9 full price and £7 concessions.

Tickets can be purchased online at the website www.arenatheatre.info, in person at the Arena Theatre box office on Wulfruna Street, or by calling 01902 321321.

TV psychic in date at theatre

TV psychic Tony Stockwell appears at Cannock's Prince of Wales Centre in June.

In an evening of mediumship, he will demonstrate his belief that those who have passed can communicate with their loved ones.

Stockwell, is the popular star of TV's Street Psychic, Psychic Private Eyes and Psychic Academy. He has also regularly appeared on Sixth Sense with Colin Fry.

His career began, when at the age of 16 he was invited to a local spiritualist church to see a medium at work.

Since then, Stockwell has also written four books about his experiences as a spiritualist medium.

He promises to give proof of the after-life, delivered with emotion, sensitivity and empathy.

A Prince of Wales Centre spokesman described the evening as 'remarkably compelling, amazingly detailed and accurate and always humorous'.

Tickets for the evening, which starts at 7.30pm on Wednesday, June 5, are £19. They are available from the box office on 01543 578762.

70s disco night

CANNOCK'S Prince of Wales Centre goes back to the 70s with Disco Night on Friday, April 26, with Tony Blackburn as virtual DJ. Start time is 7.30pm and tickets are £16 on 01543 578762.

Michael Crawford

The Many Faces of Michael Crawford
BBC2, 8.30pm

Michael Crawford will always be known, first and foremost, as bumbling Frank Spencer in 1970s sitcom Some Mothers Do 'Ave 'Em. In the years that followed, some audience members found it difficult to take Crawford serious as any other character, which perhaps explains why he has largely steered clear of films and TV since. Instead, he's become a much-sought-after West End and Broadway star thanks to the likes of Barnum and The Phantom of the Opera. This documentary takes a look back at Crawford's remarkable life and career.

ITV, 8pm

Fans of Colin Dexter's novels and John Thaw's series will be delighted by a story that manages to encompass some of the themes depicted in one of older Morse's best stories, Masonic Mysteries. Initially, the killer featured here seems to be your typical deranged lunatic, the kind who murder indiscriminately – until a passion for opera, displayed in the way he elaborately stages his crimes – is revealed. Morse's musical knowledge may enable him to unlock the case's puzzling nature, which involves cryptic clues and an ever-growing body count.

Pick of the Week

Dramatic series draws to a great conclusion

So, have you figured out whodunit yet? Usually, the resolution of a whodunit is guessable, especially one that has lasted several weeks in which each suspect has been examined and dismissed (or otherwise) throughout the run.

So, have you figured out whodunit yet? Usually, the resolution of a whodunit is guessable, especially one that has lasted several weeks in which each suspect has been examined and dismissed (or otherwise) throughout the run.

But not Broadchurch – it's been a different breed altogether, and thank goodness for that. Too many dramas these days have been made to appeal to viewers with short attention spans; they're smart, snappy and scenes last about 30 seconds.

However, this eight-part series from acclaimed writer Chris Chibnall has been a slow-burner, with the patience of audience members rewarded with one of the most gripping plots we've seen in a long while.

So far we've learned that Danny Latimer has been murdered and that most of the people in the town of Broadchurch, where he lived, have something to hide and so could, possibly, have bumped him off in an attempt to keep their secret under wraps for ever.

And that's about it really – although we're just as keen to find out what's really wrong with DI Alec Hardy, the detective in charge of the case, as we are the identity of the killer.

But no matter how intriguing the storyline, the programme just wouldn't be worth tuning in for if it wasn't for the acting, which has been of a uniformly high standard. At the centre of it all is Jodie Whittaker as Beth, Danny's grief-stricken mother.

The 30-year-old Huddersfield-born actress is making a habit of playing young mums – in BBC Two's Royal Wedding, she was a woman who'd had a baby at 15, and she's in the same situation here.

No doubt her next role will be very different, but there's no denying she's the heart and soul of this series. And what's particularly interesting is that during filming, neither she nor the rest of the cast knew who the killer was.

"I only got the first episode for the audition and I found that quite nerve-racking, not knowing where it was going," she says. "But that's a really great thing to do because it keeps you anxious the whole way through. It keeps you guessing and makes you not trust any of the other characters; which you wouldn't do in that environment."

"That first episode was heart-breaking to read, but you met so many interesting characters. When I came on board, David Tennant, Olivia Colman, Vicky McClure and Andrew Buchan were already attached. Every week, new names were signed to it which was really exciting to think you would be working with them on an ensemble piece."

"Not a lot of dramas are ensemble and there are about 20 of us."

But it hasn't just been the human cast that Jodie has enjoyed being around – the Dorset scenery has almost been a character itself.

"I always enjoy filming on location as there is that feeling that you can be in it the whole time; you are staying away, you don't have to deal with normal life when you get home from work, so it's been a great experience."

It's been great watching it too – here's hoping the last episode lives up to expectations.

Jodie Whittaker stars in Broadchurch, Monday, ITV, 9pm

Best of the Rest

Ben Fogle: New Lives in the Wild Channel 5, 9pm

Normally, when people on TV talk about wanting to quit the rat race and lead a simpler life, they mean they want a period cottage in a county village. However, the people in this new series have taken a more extreme approach, setting up home in some of the world's most remote locations. Ben Fogle is on a mission to experience their extraordinary lifestyles, and in the opening edition, he's journeying to Australia's Great Barrier Reef to live with David Glasheen. The former businessman lost $10million in the stock market crash of 1987, and with the last of his savings, he bought the lease on part of the 100-acre, volcanic Restoration Island, where he and his dog Quasi are the sole residents.

The Prisoners

BBC1, 9pm

This Pentonville-set fly-on-the-bars doc might be just the antidote after a soap-heavy Monday diet of EastEnders, Emmerdale and Corrie. As cameras return to the north London facility holding more than 1,000 male prisoners, we meet Mick, an inmate whose crimes have led to years of incarceration. There's a chance he may wind up breaking the law unless he has proper housing once released. We also get an insight into the life of Senol, who is trying to forget his violent past and build a better future with his fiancée. However, a battle with the bottle could be his biggest hurdle. Some fascinating sentences from those doing long sentences.

TUESDAY

The Syndicate BBC1, 9pm

They say money can't buy you love, and in Mandy's case, it can't buy you freedom or happiness either. Even with £14million sitting in the bank accruing interest, her life is in a worse state than ever. Mandy has bound and gagged her abusive husband Steve in the cellar, bitter colleague Helen is upping her blackmail demands, and the nurse is facing the distinct possibility of spending a stint in prison. On a happier note, there's love in the air for Tom and Natalie at their housewarming party, and the couple make a big announcement. Perhaps we will see some good coming from the lottery win after all, as Kay Mellor's ensemble drama series draws to a close.

WEDNESDAY

Coast BBC2, 8pm

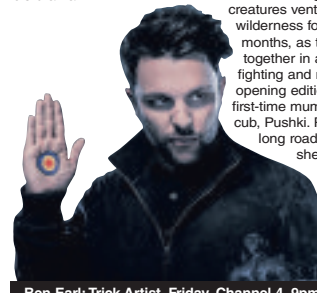

Don't berate yourself for being lazy because you can't bear to prise yourself away from the sofa to face the outdoors thanks to the lacklustre weather; that's what this gem of a series is there for – to bring the stories of our coasts to the comfort of our living rooms. This week, the team looks at stories linked to estuaries around the UK, with Nick Crane heading off in the direction of the Firth of Forth to investigate the 'soliton'. He wants to learn more about the rare type of wave that seems to travel endlessly without losing energy or breaking up. Meanwhile, Miranda Krestovnikoff reveals how salmon fend off dehydration by migrating to saltwater.

Great Bear Stakeout

BBC1, 9pm

If you go down to the woods today, you're sure of a big surprise – because spring has sprung in Alaska, and the grizzly bears are emerging from hibernation. In this two-part documentary series, comedian and actor Billy Connolly narrates fascinating footage of the creatures venturing out into the wilderness for the first time in months, as they are thrust together in a frenzy of feeding, fighting and mating. Tonight's opening edition introduces us to first-time mum Parsnip and her cub, Pushki. Parsnip will have a long road ahead of her as she fights for her cub's survival in one of the harshest climates in the world – where only half of bear cubs make it through the season.

Ben Earl: Trick Artist, Friday, Channel 4, 9pm

THURSDAY

MasterChef BBC1, 8pm

For the past eight years, Gregg Wallace and John Torode have been reminding us how "Cooking doesn't get much tougher than this!", though troops making beans on toast in a war zone might beg to differ. You know the drill by now: hundreds entered, but only a handful of cooks were given a chance to prove their worth. So, who can stand the heat and who will be forced to leave the kitchen? That remains to be seen, but as 2012 winner Shelina Permalloo raised the bar rather high, we do know it will take steely resolve for the eventual finalists to transform their ideas from a concept into a mouthwatering reality.

FRIDAY

Ben Earl: Trick Artist Channel 4, 9pm

Magic is enjoying something of a boom at the moment, having been absent from our screens for a time it's now bigger than ever thanks to the likes of Dynamo. Ben Earl is the latest in a glut of exciting new talents, and his four-part series looks set to be something special. Each edition focuses on one topic, beginning with crime, upon which Earl offers an array of bewildering, bedazzling illusions, sleight-of-hand tricks and cunning deceptions. He invites a group of people to join him as he undertakes his feats, which tonight include a bullet-catch – a trick so dangerous it's only attempted by the best, and which, legend has it, has claimed the lives of at least 12 performers.

LEADING housing developer, Miller Homes, will be helping potential homebuyers on all stages of the property ladder make their next move following the launch of the Government's new Help to Buy scheme.

Miller Homes will be offering the scheme, which is now available to home movers as well as first time buyers, at its developments across the country.

Help to Buy will offer assistance for buyers who only have a small deposit of around five per cent through the provision of a 20 per cent equity loan from the Government for those who meet the qualifying criteria, meaning buyers only need to secure up to a 75 per cent mortgage from a bank or building society. This is an extension of the existing FirstBuy scheme and applies to new build properties up to the value of £600,000 in England.

Chris Enders, chief executive of Miller Homes, said: "We are delighted to be able to offer Help to Buy to our customers. The introduction of this initiative provides another welcome boost to the housing market by offering more help for those who only have a small deposit."

"Increasing the supply of low deposit mortgages to a wider range of people, including those who are looking to move up the ladder as well as first time buyers, will have a positive impact on the market overall."

Miller Homes currently has more than 50 developments featuring a range of properties which cater for the needs of a wide variety of buyers, from those looking to purchase their first home to growing families and downsizers.

House sales hold steady, according to latest survey

THE AMOUNT of houses sold in the West Midlands remained at a high level for the third consecutive month, as the increased confidence in the market continued to translate into sales, says the latest RICS housing market survey.

In the three months to March, chartered surveyors in the West Midlands sold an average of 22 homes, the same amount as recorded in the three months to February and up slightly from January's figure of 20.

Confidence has been slowly returning to the UK housing market since the summer of 2011 and transaction levels have been consistently high for three consecutive months.

On average, surveyors in the West Midlands have seen the biggest increase in homes sold since the start of the year, followed by those respondents working in the London area. By way of contrast, the sales trend appears flattest in East Anglia and the East Midlands.

The picture for pricing in the region was less positive, with seven per cent more surveyors in the region reporting falls rather than rises in house prices. Similarly, expectations for future house prices were downbeat, with 24 per cent more expecting prices to fall rather than rise.

Market

Meanwhile, the amount of homes coming onto the market was little changed last month. Just one per cent more surveyors reported rises rather than falls in new instructions, meaning that the shortfall of fresh stock coming to the market remains a key issue for buyers.

Looking ahead, respondents are in two minds about whether the recent increase in transactions is set to continue as an equal number of respondents reported that they expect increases as those who expect to see decreases.

Richard Franklin, RICS Residential Spokesperson for the West Midlands and Partner at Edward Gallimore, commented: "The increased volume and current market confidence is akin to the first flowers of spring, which can be caught by an arctic blast or the economic equivalent."

"A buoyant, healthy property market is central to economic recovery and, while these are still very much early signs, it is encouraging that sales are beginning to pick-up across the West Midlands."

"The budget did little to stimulate the bulk of the market focusing on new build properties until next spring. However, the increase in potential buyers enquiries and viewing property is optimistic."

The new Skoda Octavia is available in three trim levels – S, SE and Elegance

SKODA has done it again – improved on what was already an excellent car.

The latest Octavia is bigger than before (and it was one of the most spacious in its class already) and improved in so many ways with lots of technology that does not just make your motoring life more comfortable but an awful lot safer too. It's based on the platform that underpins the latest Seat Leon and VW Golf, but it has a longer wheelbase and an extended rear overhang to help distance it from those two siblings from the same ultimate stable.

Even though prices have risen by around £2,000 compared with the outgoing Octavia, the replacement is much better equipped and is in fact better value for money.

There's a choice of two turbo petrol engines and two diesels, with an ultra-efficient 89g/km Greenline set for later this year, and a not-to-be-missed 217bhp vRS hot hatch. Can't wait to try that! On a test route that took in winding back roads and a stretch of motorway the drive was pleasant with little effect from the bumps and potholes encountered.

Compromised

Refinement is good, too. There was little tyre rumble or wind noise and the atmosphere is good in the cabin which has a good quality finish. There is so much space for passengers that I imagined the boot capacity would be compromised – but no, you get a massive space.

You also get Velcro dividers, a reversible floor with one side carpeted and the other wipe-clean rubber for when you carry dirty dogs! The parcel shelf neatly stores away flush with the rear seats which means you don't leave it lying around or taking up valuable load space.

There are three trims – S, SE and Elegance – and across the range you get more than German marques offer including air-conditioning, smart alloy wheels, seven airbags, stability control, Bluetooth, DAB radio, six-disc CD changer

It is excellent value for money, is generally cheaper to insure than rivals and has lower CO2 emissions with the diesel escaping the London Congestion Charge – the car is really a winner.

Taking a look back over the history of the Octavia you discover that 44 in every 100 Skodas built are Octavias and more than 3.7 million have been sold since the first ones arrived back in 1996 – that makes me feel really old. No wonder such effort has been put into making the new Octavia even more successful to build on such incredible success.

The new Octavia line-up starts at £15,990 for a 1.2-litre petrol model in S trim, rising to £23,240 for the range-topping 2.0 diesel automatic.

Forget the badge snobbery and go out and buy a Skoda Octavia.

Latest Range Rover ultimate sports SUV

THE all-new Range Rover Sport is the ultimate premium sports SUV – the fastest, most agile and responsive Land Rover ever.

Developed alongside the highly-acclaimed all-new Range Rover, the new Range Rover Sport now delivers the brand's best-ever on-road dynamics together with class-leading, genuine Land Rover all-terrain capability.

The new, technology-packed, Range Rover Sport presents customers with a more assertive and muscular exterior, more luxurious interior and the flexibility provided by the option of occasional 5+2 seating.

Exploiting Land Rover's breakthrough lightweight suspension design and innovative dynamic chassis technologies, the Sport's all-new, first-in-class aluminium architecture achieves a weight saving of up to 420kg. This transforms the vehicle's dynamic performance, enabling it to blend agile handling with exceptional comfort, offering a unique mix of sporting luxury and a dynamic, connected driving experience, along with CO2 emissions reduced to 194g/km.

The dynamic new Range Rover Sport has a bold and progressive exterior design that is assertive, powerful and muscular, hinting at the improved driving performance, and positioning the vehicle clearly between the Range Rover and the Evoque through a clear, shared design DNA.

With a fresh interpretation of the previous model's distinctive design, the new vehicle has a sleek and contemporary appearance combined with enhanced use of space. The new Sport is just 62mm longer than its predecessor, yet at 4850mm, it is shorter than other seven-seater SUVs and most E segment sedans, bringing greater manoeuvrability and ease of parking.

However, a significantly longer wheelbase (increased by 178mm) provides greater room and improved access for rear passengers.

At launch, all-new Range Rover Sport customers will have a choice of four engines – two supercharged petrol engines (5.0-litre 510PS V8 and the new 3.0-litre 340PS V6) and two diesel engines (3.0-litre 258PS TDV6 and 292PS SDV6). The powertrain line-up will be expanded later in this year by the addition of a high performance 4.4-litre 339PS SDV8 diesel version.

Innovative

In addition, an innovative, high-efficiency diesel hybrid model will be available to order later this year for delivery in 2014.

A design benchmark in its segment, the Sport interior offers a unique blend of style and understated luxury with strong, elegant lines, top quality materials and an extra dash of sporting character. Strong, architectural forms within the interior have been enhanced by a cleaner, purer surface treatment, beautifully executed with more luxurious soft-touch surfaces in key touch points around the cabin.

Stunning new 2008

Peugeot 2008, the new compact crossover, is an exciting addition to the brand line-up

AFTER the 208 next comes the 2008. Peugeot's stunning new compact crossover – making its world debut in road-ready production trim – builds on the success of the popular supermini and was one of the stars of the 2013 Geneva Motor Show.

With its perfect mix of contemporary styling, clean and efficient engines, plus a versatile cabin, it's an exciting addition to the brand's already comprehensive line-up.

The 2008 is the latest expression of Peugeot's renewed brand positioning on its move up market and clearly visible in the 2008. The 2008 signals the marque's arrival in a highly competitive sector, pushing customers' expectations to a new level.

The car oozes desirability, with an athletic design, engaging driving experience, high levels of comfort and equipment, and outstanding quality in materials and finish. Further enhancing Peugeot's strategy of boosting its crossover range to attract new customers, the 2008 is a truly global car. It addresses the increasing demands of customers around the world and is the first vehicle produced by the marque which has been designed, developed and engineered simultaneously by employees based in Europe, China and Latin America. Vehicles for Europe will be produced in the factory in Mulhouse, France.

The 2008 brings a new level of innovation to the B-segment by combining the expertise and experience of two acclaimed Peugeot vehicles – the award-winning 3008 and the new 208 supermini.

With a characterful on-the-road presence, the 2008 is intended for young city-dwellers who love the urban environment but also enjoy escaping from it. In keeping with the dynamism of its profile silhouette, power comes from the latest generation of low fuel consumption Peugeot engines.

With e-HDi diesel and three-cylinder petrol technology, Peugeot's urban cross-over stands out from the competition due to CO2 emissions starting at just 98g/km. Fuel economy can be as high as 61.8mpg.

New Picasso a free road tax work of art

CITROEN has released the first details of the new C4 Picasso, highlighting its larger boot, lower emissions and two large colour displays.

The sharply styled model, which Citroen claims is the first compact MPV to offer the possibility to dip below the 100g/km threshold for free road tax, uses a new modular platform that has enabled up to 140kg to be saved and interior space to be increased thanks to a front overhang that has been shortened by 70mm.

A range of engines at the car's launch will include new Euro 6-compliant diesels with power outputs from 89bhp to 148bhp. Manual and automated manual gearboxes will also be available, with a traditional automatic transmission pencilled in for early 2014.

The highlights of the new engine line-up include the entry-level 89bhp-HDi with 74mpg and just 98g/km of CO2, making it very cost-effective.

Arguably even better is the 148bhp BlueHDi diesel, which only emits 110g/km of carbon dioxide.

More details and prices will follow from the Citroen headquarters in the coming weeks, with the first deliveries of the new C4 Picasso models expected to arrive in the autumn.

Turn over a new Leaf with latest all-electric

THE next generation of Nissan's all-electric Leaf has arrived – and for the first time, buyers can lease batteries for the 100 per cent electric car and choose one of three trim levels.

A new pricing structure has been introduced to reflect the three trim levels and the battery-leasing options now available – but things are far from complicated. Cars bought with leased batteries will be known as 'Flex' models and buyers will be able to get behind the wheel of an entry-level Visia Leaf on that basis for £15,990 (after receipt of the Government's £5,000 plug-in grant).

The separate battery lease payment ranges from just £70 per month depending on the length of the contract and mileage covered.

The highest price anyone will pay for a Leaf is £25,490 (again, after receipt of the grant). This will be for a top-of-the-range Tekna Leaf, with the battery bought outright.

The new Leaf features more than 100 improvements over its predecessor – many of which were made as a result of feedback from Nissan's active community of Leaf owners.

Most notably, the car's range has been extended from 109 miles to 124 miles. And its battery is capable of recharging in about half the time of the first-generation Leaf.

The longer range has been achieved by improving the Leaf's aerodynamics and its regenerative braking system and a more efficient E-powertrain. The real world range has also been improved with the introduction of a new heating system which is 70 per cent more efficient through the use of a heat pump in the system.

Unique

But that's far from the whole story. New interior trim, the addition of Nissan's Around View Monitor technology and new suspension settings specifically tailored for European roads build on the Leaf's unique driving experience.

The three trim levels available to UK buyers are Visia, Acenta and Tekna. All models have increased boot space because of the relocation of the charging point and an enhanced interior trim. There is a height-adjust facility on both front seats and more foot space for passengers.

At the top of the range, Tekna features a Bose energy-efficient sound system with a subwoofer and seven speakers. In addition, there are 17in alloys and LED headlamps.

Whichever route buyers choose to Leaf ownership, peace of mind is assured with Nissan's enhanced battery warranty. The warranty on the previous-generation Leaf's battery covered it against defective materials or workmanship for five years. The extended warranty also protects against capacity loss, with a commitment to repair or replace a battery which falls short of what might reasonably be expected.

Nissan's announcement of a new era for emission-free motoring continues to drive the electric revolution forward. Owning an electric car has never been more appealing. Some of the benefits are well-known, such as the lack of Vehicle Excise Duty and exemption from the London congestion charge, but it's becoming easier to charge up a Nissan Leaf on the move with more public charging points opening all the time. And of course, the cost of a full battery charge is a fraction of the price of a tank of petrol.

Jim Wright, managing director of Nissan Motor (GB) Ltd, said: "We are very proud of the new Nissan Leaf, which underlines our commitment to the future of electric motoring."

"With more than 100 improvements over the outgoing model, it really does mark the next stage in the electric motoring revolution. Built at our record-breaking Sunderland plant for British drivers using British roads, we're looking forward to it becoming our next home-grown success story."

The new generation Nissan Leaf features more than 100 improvements over its predecessor

Tom hits hat-trick to set up victory

Junior football

Hednesford United U13 Girls 1 Lichfield Diamonds U13 Girls 0
HEDNESFORD'S early goal was enough to give them victory over Lichfield Diamonds.

They struck when Molly Bruton's free-kick set up Lois Brindley to fire home.

Hednesford defended well with their main alarm coming from a pinball moment in their box which saw keeper Tiffany Whelan make two fine saves.

Hednesford United U15s Girls came runners-up in a three-day tournament at Great Yarmouth. They are looking for players for next season. Call 07969 846423.

Sheffield Utd U12 0 Wyrley Juniors U12 3

A Tom Wheelton treble saw Wyrley to victory in this Lichfield League Division Two match.

He went close before Elliot Crook's long-range shot was parried onto the bar by the Sheffield keeper.

Wheelton broke the deadlock when he raced clear and beat the keeper just inside the near post. He made it two, finding the corner of the net from Sam Foreman's pass and wrapped it up with a neat chip over the keeper.

Louie Parish and Lewis Hill went close before Wyrley were pushed onto the defensive late on.

Breerton Town U10 4 Sheffield Blues U10 1

Ad Murray was Breerton's man of the match in this fine victory. Ethan Hopcott, Addison Jarrett-Greaves and Jamie Speed scored.

Breerton Town U10 1 Lichfield City U10 3

Breerton competed well against a strong Lichfield outfit. Jarrett-Greaves was their man of the match and Speed their scorer.

Breerton Town U10 3 Starland St Anne's U10 4

Last time Breerton met this team they lost 7-0, which just shows the side's improvement. Speed bagged a double and Jarrett-Greaves also found the net. Goalkeeper and man of the match Alec Lovell made some fine saves.

Lakeside U9 1 Stafford Rgrs Jun Reds U9 2

Lakeside suffered first defeat of the season against a determined Stafford in the Shield semi-final. Stafford took an early lead but Andrzej Jerome levelled before the break. Lakeside bombarded Stafford's goal but they hit the winner.

Rugeley Rangers Girls under-16s beat Stoke Town to reach a second final this season

Revenge for Rangers

Junior football

RUGELEY RANGERS Girls under-16s have reached their second final of the season with a revenge victory.

They lost 1-0 to Stoke Town Ladies under-16s in the Staffordshire County Cup final. But when the teams met in Staffordshire County Girls League Cup and it was Rugeley who prevailed, winning 2-1 after extra time. It was Stoke's first defeat in three seasons.

The game started well for Rugeley when Holly Meehan rifled home a sweet shot after four minutes. They were unlucky not to add another as the ball bobbled across the goal line before being hacked away.

Stoke poured forward for the first 20 minutes of the second half, but Rugeley's defence held firm. However, with the final whistle nearing Stoke equalised with a superb shot. Almost immediately, Holly Meehan skewed a shot wide.

Extra-time was an end-to-end affair with both sides going all-out to avoid the dreaded penalty shoot-out. But with three minutes left, Paige Jackson slotted home a cool finish to put her side through against Uttroter Ladies or Red Street Kestrels.

Occasion proves too much for Mansell

A COMBINATION of nerves and the occasion got the better of Great Wyrley boxer Jamie Mansell as he went out of the Junior ABA championships at the first round.

The 15-year-old fell victim to the strong Grant Attwood (Worcester ABC).

The stocky Attwood jumped on his nervous opponent from the off at Donnington Sports and Social Club and opened up with hooks to head and body as Mansell struggled to find any rhythm to his work.

In the second round Mansell at last got his punches off and, while they didn't carry the power of his opponent, they caught the eye to score well.

Told by his corner to have a big last round, Attwood flew at Mansell, but more than held his own and was competing right up until the final bell.

Attwood deserved his unanimous verdict, but Wyrley coach Peter Hickenbottom said: "That was only Jamie's eighth bout compared to Grant's 17th and while he didn't win, the experience will have done him the world of good."

"It shows that he can compete at that level and he will only get better."

'Mile High' flies into the money

RUGELEY darter Mark Hylton banked £400 after reaching the fourth round in the weekend's PDC's UK Open qualifiers at Wigan's Robin Park Centre.

'Mile High' - a former airline cabin crew manager - was first at the oche on Saturday's and started fast with a 6-3 victory over David Dods.

But a tough second round draw against world No 10 Dave Chisnall went against him, as Hylton lost 6-2.

The 46-year-old returned to the same venue for Sunday's second tournament and received a bye before beating John Scott by 6-2.

That took Hylton into the money stages and a 6-3 win over Rocco Maes doubled his money. A tough draw paired him with Kim Huybrechts, who beat him 6-3 to reach the final, where he lost to Michael van Gerwen.

Hylton remains 36th in the PDC Order of Merit.

Sullivan the sub shines in dour tie

Kids Grove Athletic 0
Chasetown 1

A DOUR game was won by a goal of individual brilliance from Chasetown substitute Paul Sullivan four minutes from time.

He burst into the penalty area and instead of laying a pass into the path of Nick Wellecome, he unleashed a fierce shot from a tight angle which went through the legs of Kids Grove goalkeeper Dan Read.

Saturday's win gave Chasetown new hope in the chase for a play-off spot in Evo-Stik Northern League First Division South.

In the fourth minute, Testa Robinson got a clear shot at the target from the edge of the penalty area but flashed it just a yard wide of Read's left-hand upright.

Then leading marksman Wellecome struck a fierce first-time shot that cannoned off Read's chest and bounced to safety.

Just after the hour, Chasetown had strong claims for a penalty turned down when defender Craig Dove grabbed the shirt of striker Gary Hay.

With the clock ticking down, Sullivan netted his ninth goal of the season to scenes of jubilation.

Club signal urgent need for a scorer

EVERYTHING is adding up for Cannock Cricket Club in 2013 - except a scorer.

They are set for this year's campaign and are about to launch outdoor training sessions but urgently require a first team scorer.

The post brings tea, transport to away games and a £30 fee. Experience is preferred, but not necessary, and the successful candidate is required on each Saturday between April 27 and September 14.

Outdoor junior training sessions start at 6.30pm on Monday at Chase Park, Church Lane, Hatherton.

The club have 19 ECB qualified coaches with CRB clearance and Coaches Association insurance. Players of all abilities are welcome.

Senior nets start tonight at 6pm. For more details on the scorer's position or training and nets, contact Graham Machin on 07836 371 043.

Burntwood get turned over in seven-try loss

Newcastle (Staffs) 45 Burntwood 15
BURNWOOD missed out in this 'rubber' match against Newcastle.

The sides had met twice before this season in cup and league fixtures with a narrow victory to each side.

But this time Newcastle, pushing for promotion from Midlands Three West (North), made their experience tell against a youthful Burntwood line-up and ran in seven tries to the visitors' two. Much of the damage came in the first half as the hosts scored five tries, four of them from turnovers in open play.

The first turnover came after eight minutes following a promising drive into home territory. The home right winger broke away across field, evading tackles, to take play deep into the visitors' 22-metre area. A line-out catch and drive from 10 metres was touched down for a converted try.

Three minutes later and Zak Shingler and Jack Neal linked to drive into the home half but the support was not quick enough. Newcastle seized possession and streaked away down the left touchline for an unconverted try in the corner.

Another promising position was lost on 16 minutes when Graham Shelley set up a drive from a line-out but this time the support players were penalised for falling on the wrong side.

The hosts went further ahead from a cleverly won line-out on 21 minutes. Two passes infield and the try was scored. The conversion went in off the post.

Burntwood gained some encouragement from the restart. Shelley collected Ben Holt's kick-off and took the ball on. The Newcastle backs were caught offside and Aza Dune't kicked the penalty goal.

A Newcastle penalty attempt struck a post and Neal was alert to the rebound to put in a try-saving tackle.

The hosts kept the pressure on for a pushover try under the posts, the conversion made 26-3.

It became 31-3 after 34 minutes following another turnover. The home backs broke right then left before a long pass from the outside half was taken by the left wing for a try in the corner.

Burntwood hit back and after a couple of close efforts, Shelley who drove over for the touch down. Dune't converted for 31-10 at the break.

Newcastle added 14 points within 10 second-half minutes. Although it was too late to affect the result, the latter part of the game belonged to Burntwood with a Jordan Douglas try.

Players serve up the goods in tennis contest

Big smash - players in the under-10 event at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre enjoy their day's competition

YOUNGSTERS from Cheslyn Hay Tennis Club were among the winners at a Lawn Tennis Association-sanctioned tournament.

Some 24 players, including some from Yorkshire, took part in the event at Cheslyn Hay Leisure Centre.

For many of the Cheslyn Hay contingent, it was their first experience of an LTA tennis competition.

The day started well for Cheslyn Hay with Sam Clarie and Charlie Shephard winning their match events to beat all opponents within two sets.

The under-10s section featured four Cheslyn Hay players - Tommy Dace, Alfie Allan-Smith, Matthew Galliar and Jack Taylor - and every player won at least one match.

With many players back home, James Clark (Cheslyn Hay TC) and Aaron Blick (Walsall TC) were still finishing their match which took more than 90 minutes. Blick finally won 13-11 in the third set tie-break. Ollie Plant, Michael Galliar and Curtis Shipp also represented Cheslyn Hay in the matchplay.

Tennis Coaching at Cheslyn Hay takes places on Monday evenings with mini-tennis for ages five-to-11 from 5.45-6.45pm and junior tennis (11-plus) from 6.45-8pm.

There are plans for additional evening coaching. Call Chris Perrin on 07869 829318 or email cheslynhaytennis@live.com and follow @chaytennis on Twitter.

Town win with ease in chase for title

Hednesford Town 4
Whitby Town 0

HEDNESFORD TOWN boosted their hopes of taking the Evo-Stik Northern Premier title with a comfortable win over Whitby Town. Hednesford started with real purpose on Saturday as Neil Harvey shot over inside the first 60 seconds, Jamey Osborne cheekily back-heeled wide and Kris Taylor's free-kick hit the wall.

The nerves inside Keys Park were settled when an Elliott Durrell free-kick was spilled by the goalkeeper into the path of Kevin Burgess who couldn't help but divert the ball into his own net.

Whitby imposed themselves before the home side's second goal came 10 minutes before the break.

Michael Lennon swept the ball past keeper Nicholas Liversedge after he had saved from Harvey and Durrell.

The visitors had the opportunity either side of half-time to halve the deficit.

On the hour, Durrell worked hard down the right and crossed for Harvey, who powered home a superb header. He scored his second with an assured finish after Lennon's shot crashed against the crossbar on 62 minutes. The chance was set up by smart play between Osborne and John Disney.

Champion season is celebrated

CANNOCK Hockey Club's Midlands League sides have had their most successful season on record.

Five teams won their leagues and the other finished runners-up to one of the Cannock sides.

The seconds and sixths had 100 per cent records.

In all, out of 122 games played the Cannock sides won 108 and lost just seven with a seven drawn.

Club captain James Hudson said: "This is a remarkable club achievement and is testament to the hard work put in by the captains and coaches."

"The performances were even more remarkable, considering the sides contained a large number of junior players."

Mistakes prove to be costly in draw

Dunkirk 2 Heath Hayes 2
HEATH HAYES will be kicking themselves for not taking maximum Midland Alliance points after a gritty, committed performance.

A superb strike from Tom Green after 17 minutes gave Hayes confidence and they were full value for an interval lead.

It might have been bigger had the referee not ignored strong penalty claims when Lee Smith was brought down from behind with the goal at his mercy.

Tuesday night's game turned on its head after an hour when the visitors – not for the first time this season – gave away two poor goals.

The home side had resorted to hitting long balls into the box but were gifted a goal when Andrew Tuck and keeper Adam Lane got in a mix-up and Lane brought down Joe Brown. Will Coutts hit the penalty.

Worse was to follow five minutes later when Hayes conceded a needless free-kick and Bradley Wells' 25-yard effort sneaked in.

Karl Wallis and Andrew Davies went close for Hayes before Lee Smith set up Dave Waple for a last-gasp equaliser.

Hayes keep going to get vital victory

Heath Hayes 3 Ellesmere Rangers 2
INJURY-HIT Hayes battled well to take the points in this relegation thriller.

Saturday's victory was their third in four games as they battle to avoid the drop from the Midland Alliance.

Dave Waple came within a whisker of giving his side the lead in the second minute but his lob was saved by keeper Dave McGuire.

Chad Degville-Cross had a good effort pushed around the post by McGuire. The visitors scored on 27 minutes through Steve O'Reilly.

Degville-Cross finished off a fine move by the home side to level at the break.

In the second half Steve Allen was brought down by George Durrell and Chris Deakin fired in the penalty. Kevin Renshaw's free-kick glanced Andrew Davies' head for an own goal.

John Littler's free-kick rebounded off the wall and he hooked it back for Karl Wallis to head the winner.

Pitmen dig deep in attempt to make history

HEDNESFORD TOWN'S season reaches its dramatic climax over the next three weeks.

And Pitmen boss Rob Smith has stated that his team, so close to recording what could be a historic campaign, are "desperate" to secure silverware on three fronts.

The Pitmen play Rushall Olympic at Port Vale next Wednesday in the final of the Staffordshire Senior Cup.

They then face Sutton Coldfield Town in the Birmingham Senior Cup final at Walsall FC's Banks' Stadium on April 30.

"As a group we have worked so hard this year, starting with six tough weeks in pre-season, and we are desperate to end the season with silverware," declared Smith.

"We set out to win as many games as we could in all competitions this year and the local cups have been a great distraction for us.

"The supporters deserve two big nights out at Football League stadiums."

Before the midweek fixtures, Hednesford were standing equal on points with Evo-Stik Northern Premier title rivals North Ferriby United. But Ferriby opened up a three-point gap on Tuesday night with a 2-0 victory at Matlock Town.

Hednesford travelled to Buxton last night in a bid to close that gap.

And they make the short journey to Ilkeston this Saturday still harbouring hopes of securing promotion to the Blue Square Bet Conference North.

While the league position is vital, cup success would be an enjoyable diversion for Hednesford's supporters.

Wednesday's final at Port Vale is a 7.30pm kick-off and could see Smith's side lift the Staffs FA trophy for the first time since 1973/74. Standing in their way are a Rushall team who are unbeaten against The Pitmen in three meetings this season.

Smith has backed his squad to emerge the victors, but is unstinting in his praise of the Pits.

"For me, Rushall are the team of the year at our level," he said.

"They have been superb and I give the whole club massive credit.

"They are up for every game, so in a final you couldn't wish for harder opposition.

"But the big pitch should suit our wide players and I have every confidence in my team."

Juniors make it to finals

THREE Heath Hayes junior sides are vying for glory after reaching the final of their respective knockout tournaments – one of them at the expense of their club-mates.

The under-nines were first to progress to the Lichfield League Cup final, a 4-0 win over Beacon Stars taking them through to meet Four Oaks.

The under-15s followed, reaching the Shield final with a 2-0 win over Walmley Tigers.

First division Hayes had survived a last-eight scare against third division Excalibur, going 3-0 down before battling back to win 5-4.

But they had no such scares as they overcame second-tier Tigers 2-0 in their semi thanks to goals from Ben Blakeley and Josh Wilding. They will meet Holy Name Manor in the final.

The club's two under-14s sides met in the Shield semi, with the top division side edging out their second division rivals.

Joe Hartshorne was twice on the mark, with the first coming in under two minutes. Harry Ward replied.

Stafford Rangers await in the final.

Club declare need for new players

CANNOCK and Rugeley CC are looking for new players of all abilities as they gear up for the 2013 season.

CHASETOWN DRAW BUT KEEP IN RACE

Chasetown 0 Leek Town 0
Craig Harris' 50th match in charge finished goalless but keeps Chasetown in the play-off hunt as they overhauled Halesowen Town.

The Scholars sit three points behind Sutton Coldfield and level on points with Halesowen with four games to play.

All three contenders have to play a promotion challenger and all have an opponent in the bottom two.

The race could go to the final kick of the season, writes Paul Mullins.

Leek, who lie just a couple of places below Chasetown, went close to breaking the deadlock just after the half-hour mark on Tuesday when Anthony Danylyk struck the bottom of Ryan Price's post with a shot from outside the penalty area.

Leek keeper Ben Chapman got lucky six minutes before the break. A Paul Sullivan shot took a positively malevolent bounce which almost deceived him.

But he managed to get the slightest of touches on the ball to divert it out for a corner-kick and to save any embarrassment.

While Chapman was fortunate to keep that out, there was no luck involved on the stroke of half-time.

Gary Hay looked destined to stab the ball home from close range, but Chapman got down superbly to his left to keep out Hay's shot.

As in Chasetown's visit to Kidsgrove last Saturday, clearcut chances were few and far between and although the general attacking play was more positive than at the weekend, 0-0 did seem more and more likely with every minute.

The visitors had the territorial advantage in the second half, but Chasetown rode the pressure well and
